Persepolis 2 Marjane Satrapi:

Persepolis 2 Marjane Satrapi, 2004-08-31 The fascinating continuation of the best selling Persepolis one of the freshest and most original memoirs of our day Los Angeles Times Marjane Satrapi dazzles with her heartrending graphic memoir about growing up in Iran during the Islamic Revolution In 1984 Marjane flees fundamentalism and the war with Iraq to begin a new life in Vienna Once there she faces the trials of adolescence far from her friends and family and while she soon carves out a place for herself among a group of fellow outsiders she continues to struggle for a sense of belonging Finding that she misses her home more than she can stand Marjane returns to Iran after graduation Her difficult homecoming forces her to confront the changes both she and her country have undergone in her absence and her shame at what she perceives as her failure in Austria Marjane allows her past to weigh heavily on her until she finds some like minded friends falls in love and begins studying art at a university However the repression and state sanctioned chauvinism eventually lead her to question whether she can have a future in Iran As funny and poignant as its predecessor Persepolis 2 is another clear eyed and searing condemnation of the human cost of fundamentalism In its depiction of the struggles of growing up here compounded by Marjane's status as an outsider both abroad and at home it is raw honest and incredibly illuminating

Girls and Their Comics Jacqueline Danziger-Russell, 2013 In America comics and comic books have often been associated with adolescent male fantasy muscle bound superheroes and scantily clad women Nonetheless comics have also been read and enjoyed by girls While there have been many strong representations of women throughout their history the comics of today have evolved and matured becoming a potent medium in which to explore the female experience particularly that of girlhood and adolescence In Girls and Their Comics Finding a Female Voice in Comic Book Narrative Jacqueline Danziger Russell contends that comics have a unique place in the representation of female characters She discusses the overall history of the comic book paying special attention to girls comics showing how such works relate to a female point of view While examining the concept of visual literacy Danziger Russell asserts that comics are an excellent space in which the marginalized voices of girls may be expressed This volume also includes a chapter on manga Japanese comics which explains the genesis of girls comics in Japan and their popularity with girls in the United States Including interviews with librarians comic creators and girls who read comics and manga Girls and Their Comics is an important examination of the growing interest in comic books among young females and will appeal to a wide audience including literary theorists teachers librarians popular culture and women's studies scholars and comic book historians

Iranian and Diasporic Literature in the 21st Century Daniel Grassian, 2013-02-18 The most populous Islamic country in the Middle East Iran is rife with contradictions in many ways caught between the culture and governments of the Western more dominant and arguably imperialist world and the ideology of conservative fundamentalist Islam This book explores the present day writings of authors who explore these oppositional forces often finding a middle course between the often brutal and demonizing rhetoric from both sides To combat how the

West has falsely generalized and stereotyped Iran and how Iran has falsely generalized and stereotyped the West Iranian and diasporic writers deconstruct Western caricatures of Iran and Iranian caricatures of the West In so doing they provide especially valuable insights into life in Iran today and into life in the West for diasporic Iranians Witnessing Girlhood Leigh Gilmore, Elizabeth Marshall, 2019-09-17 When more than 150 women testified in 2018 to the sexual abuse inflicted on them by Dr Larry Nassar when they were young competitive gymnasts they exposed and transformed the conditions that shielded their violation including the testimonial disadvantages that cluster at the site of gender youth and race In Witnessing Girlhood Leigh Gilmore and Elizabeth Marshall argue that they also joined a long tradition of autobiographical writing led by women of color in which adults use the figure and narrative of child witness to expose harm and seek justice Witnessing Girlhood charts a history of how women use life narrative to transform conditions of suffering silencing and injustice into accounts that enjoin ethical response Drawing on a deep and diverse archive of self representational forms slave narratives testimonio memoir comics and picture books Gilmore and Marshall attend to how authors return to a narrative of traumatized and silenced girlhood and the figure of the child witness in order to offer public testimony Emerging within these accounts are key scenes and figures that link a range of texts and forms from the mid nineteenth century to the contemporary period Gilmore and Marshall offer a genealogy of the reverberations across timelines self representational acts and jurisdictions of the child witness in life writing Reconstructing these historical and theoretical trajectories restores an intersectional testimonial history of writing by women of color about sexual and racist violence to the center of life writing and in so doing furthers our capacity to engage ethically with representations of vulnerability childhood and collective witness Critical Library Instruction Maria T. Accardi, Emily Drabinski, Alana Kumbier, 2010 A collection of articles about various ways of applying critical pedagogy and related educational theories to library instruction Provided by publisher

Mannani,Veronica Thompson,2015-09-30 the current political climate of confrontation between Islamist regimes and Western governments has resulted in the proliferation of essentialist perceptions of Iran and Iranians in the West Such perceptions do not reflect the complex evolution of Iranian identity that occurred in the years following the Constitutional Revolution 1906 11 and the anti imperialist Islamic Revolution of 1979 Despite the Iranian government s determined pursuance of anti Western policies and strict conformity to religious principles the film and literature of Iran reflect the clash between a nostalgic pride in Persian tradition and an apparent infatuation with a more Eurocentric modernity In Familiar and Foreign Mannani and Thompson set out to explore the tensions surrounding the ongoing formulation of Iranian identity by bringing together essays on poetry novels memoir and films These include both canonical and less widely theorized texts as well as works of literature written in English by authors living in diaspora Challenging neocolonialist stereotypes these critical excursions into Iranian literature and film reveal the limitations of collective identity as it has been configured within and outside of Iran Through the examination of works by among others the iconic female poet Forugh Farrokhzad the expatriate author Goli Taraghi the controversial memoirist Azar Nafisi and the graphic novelist Marjane Satrapi author of Persepolis this volume engages with the complex and contested discourses of religion patriarchy and politics that are the contemporary product of Iran s long and revolutionary history Brain Changer David Disalvo,2013-11-12 Let s be honest You ve tried the sticky note inspirations the motivational calendar and the cute but ineffective carpe diem mug yet your attitude hasn t changed It s time to apply cutting edge science to the challenges of daily life While everyone desires self improvement we are quickly frustrated when trying to implement the contradictory philosophies of self appointed self help gurus Too often their advice is based on anecdote and personal opinion not real research Bestselling author of What Makes Your Brain Happy and Why You Should Do the Opposite David DiSalvo returns with Brain Changer How Harnessing Your Brain s Power to Adapt Can Change Your Life Drawing on the latest research in neuroscience cognitive psychology behavioral economics communications and even marketing DiSalvo replaces self help with science help He demonstrates how the brain s enormous capacity to adapt is the most crucial factor influencing how we feel and act a factor that we can control to change our lives

Findings show our brains are fluid and function much like a feedback loop stimulants from both our environment and from within ourselves catalyze changes in the brain's response. That response then elicits additional inputs that the brain identifies and analyzes to further tailor its response. DiSalvo shows that the greatest internal tool we have to affect the feedback loop is metacognition: thinking about thinking. Littered with relatable examples and tackling major aspects of our lives including relationships, careers, physical health, and personal development, Brain Changer shows you how to harness metacognition to enrich your life.

Geographies of Affect in Contemporary Literature and Visual Culture, 2020-12-15 Geographies of Affect in Contemporary Literature and Visual Culture opens a dialogue between the literary and filmic works produced in Central Europe and in the Anglophone world. It relies on the concept of translocality to explore this corpus, offering new readings of contemporary Hungarian films as well as urban fiction and poetry in English. Calling attention to the role of affect in imagining city space, the volume investigates György Pálfi's Taxidermia, Blaise Tarr's Family Nest, Teju Cole's Open City, Toni Morrison's Jazz, China Miéville's Un Lun Dun, Chimamanda Adichie's Americanah, and Patrick Neate's City of Tiny Lights, among many other urban narratives. Contributors examine both widely explored emotions and under-researched affects such as shame, fascination, and the role of withdrawal in contemporary literature and culture. Contributors: Tamás Bányai, Imola Blagzdi, Fanni Feldmann, Zoltán György, György Kalmár, Anna Krchly, Márta Krácsi, Jennifer Leetsch, Katalin Pál, Linka Miklósi, Takács Pieter Vermeulen.
