

ESSAY

An essay is shorter than a research paper, usually 5 paragraphs.

Essays showcase a student's opinion and points of view, which can be backed up by several sources.

In-depth research is not generally required for this writing service.

Essay's main point is to prove a student's writing skills and capabilities.

Depending on the type of essay, students might need or not be familiar with the topic chosen.

Essays can expose a writer's opinion if wanted.

Students can play around with the structure and perception of the paper in some cases.

Types of essays: narrative, descriptive, comparison, academic, philosophical, argumentative, etc.

Typically essays have 5 parts: introduction, 3 body paragraphs, and a conclusion.

Essays are not tied to a specific methodology required for their writing.

RESEARCH PAPER

A research paper is commonly required to reach at least 8 pages, depending on the assignment.

Research articles present other people's stand on a topic, generally a scientist's or recognized organization.

An analytical research paper requires a wide understanding and investigation of a certain topic.

Research papers focus on a deep analysis of a matter.

Students writing a research paper will always need a level of understanding of the topic and sources chosen.

Writers should abstain from personal opinions and stay in line with facts only.

There's a non-negotiable structure that must be followed and closed with a proper conclusion.

Types of research papers: cause and effect, analytical, subject-based, etc.

Have a bigger structure, including a title page, abstract, introduction, body, conclusion, acknowledgments, and references.

Research papers do require a specific methodology carried out throughout the paper.

Developing Multilingual Writing Hiroe Kobayashi, Carol Rinnert, 2023-02-14 With millions of people becoming multilingual writers in the globalized digital world this book helps to empower writers to connect with their readers and project their identities effectively across languages social contexts and genres In a series of closely related studies that build on each other we look comprehensively at how writers develop their ability to construct meaning for different audiences in multiple languages This book which draws on various approaches including a social view of writing multicompetence adaptive transfer complex systems theory motivation and translanguaging contributes to on going efforts to integrate differing approaches to multilingual writing research This book focusses on how writer agency control over text construction audience awareness ability to meet expectations of prospective readers and writer identity projection of image of the writer in the text progress as multilingual writers gain more experience across languages The within writer cross sectional text analysis Chapters 2 5 examines 185 essays written in Japanese and English by eight groups of writers from novice to advanced N 103 supplemented by insights from these writers reflections We explore how they employ three kinds of text features discourse types metadiscourse and self representation which relate to their developing agency audience and writer identity in their text construction and propose a new model for writer voice construction based on those features The four case studies Chapters 6 9 focus on five university students and six professionals to examine closely how individual writers agency audience and identity are interrelated in their text construction in two or three languages and diverse genres including academic and creative writing. The combined studies provide new insights into multilingual writing development by revealing the close interrelationship among these three principal aspects of writing across languages. They also demonstrate the writers' multidirectional use of dynamic transfer, reuse and reshaping for L1, L2 and L3 text construction and the use of mixed languages, L1, L2 or L1, L3 translanguaging for composing processes in addition to the creative power of multilingual writers. One significant contribution of this book is to provide models of innovative ways to analyze text and new directions for writing research that go beyond complexity, accuracy and fluency. Categories and detailed examples of text features used for writer voice construction, e.g. specific characteristics of Personal, Emergent and Mature Voice, are helpful for writing teachers and for developing writers to improve ways of conveying their own intended writer identity to the reader. The studies break new ground by extending our analysis of L2 writing to the same writers' L1 and L3 writing and multiple genres. The Writer's
