BLACK LIVES HAVE ALWAYS MATTERED A COLLECTION OF ESSAYS POEMS AND PERSONAL NARRATIVES edited by Abiodun Oyewole extends beyond the Black Lives Matter movement's primary agenda of police brutality to acknowledge that even when affronted with slavery segregation and Jim Crow racial injustice and inequality black lives have always mattered While written primarily by African American poets writers activists and scholars selections are also from people of the Latino and African diasporas and white activists Collectively these 79 contributors provide a call to action that challenges readers to confront long held values and beliefs about black lives as well as white privilege and fragility as it surveys the historical and contemporary ravages of racism and its persistence of structural inequality More importantly BLACK LIVES HAVE ALWAYS MATTERED provides a first hand perspective to a problem known to the African American community long before the Black Lives Matter movement revealed it to the general public that black lives have always mattered Connecting the past to the present the contributors of BLACK LIVES HAVE ALWAYS MATTERED provide an eye opening and engaging collection that has the potential to reignite a broader push for black liberation and equality for all      2015 Poet's Market Robert Lee responsibility of finding ways for all writers to succeed Contests designed to reward single winners and singly authored works admirably celebrate hard work but do they over emphasize exceptional individual achievement over shared goals and communal reward for success Taking a cultural rhetorical approach to contests each chapter demonstrates the cultural work the contests accomplish The essays in Part I examine contests and riddles in classical Greek and Roman periods educational contests in eighteenth century Scotland and the Lyceum movement in the Antebellum American South The next set of essays discusses how contests leverage competition and reward in educational settings medieval universities American turn of the century women's colleges twenty first century scholarship essay contests and writing contests for speakers of other languages at the University of Portsmouth The last set of essays examines popular contests including poetry contests in Youth Spoken Word popular American contests designed by marketers and twenty first century podcasting competitions This collection then takes up contests as a cultural marker of our values assumptions and relationships to writing contests and competition
