GEOGRAPHY APPLICATION: MOVEMENT

The Roads of the Roman Empire

Directions: Read the paragraphs and study the map. Then answer the questions that follow.

The famous Roman roads were a vast network of hard-surfaced roads connecting the city of Rome to the farthest reaches of its empire. The stone-paved highways lasted for more than a thousand years, and some sections are still in use today. Author Isaac Asimov claimed that there was no better mode of transportation in the world until the arrival of railroads close to 2,000 years later.

Romans began building roads in 312 B.C. following their first major conquests. The beginning stretch, the Appian Way, trailed 132 miles southeast out of Rome. Thereafter, roadbuilding kept pace with the empire's expansion. Eventually, Roman roads wound 53,000 miles around the Mediterranean and northeastern Atlantic regions.

The roads, constructed by slaves and soldiers, were wide enough for large wagons to pass each other. The principal use of the highways was to move Roman armies from one part of the empire to another. However, citizens were free to use the roads. The Roman statesman Cicero once spoke of moving 56 miles in a cart in just ten hours. However, travelers had to be alert for bandits, as people might simply "disappear" while riding on Roman roads.

Letters Written from Prison Don Stormer, 2016-06-30 Letters written under difficult circumstances are writings that reveal what is most important to the writer Pauls prison letters are no exception They show the depth of his spiritual understanding In particular he reveals his deep appreciation of who Jesus Christ is in the opening chapter of Ephesians and in the Christ hymns of Philippians 2 and Colossians 1 As is customary with Paul we read first about the doctrinal foundations of our faith Once the doctrinal foundation has been taught we move to the practical outworking of the truths This truth is not so that we have a head knowledge of the faith but is something intended to change our behaviour In Ephesians Paul discusses our position in Christ that we are seated in heavenly places in Him as the basis for our Christian walk and warfare In Philippians two words or word groups are prominent joy and mind Christians are to have the same mind as Christ earnestly following His example It is for good reason that Paul says Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus Then we can rejoice in the Lord Colossians teaches that following a set of rules is not the way to follow Christ while the letter to Philemon is a plea on behalf of a converted slave
