Chapter 1: The First Frontier

Section 1: The First Frontier

Read the text and answer the questions that follow. Write your answers in the spaces provided.

1. The First Frontier

1. The first frontier was the land west of the Appalachian Mountains. It was a vast area of land that was mostly empty and undeveloped. The first settlers who came to this area were the pioneers. They were people who were looking for a better life in the west.

2. The pioneers who came to the first frontier were mostly from the eastern United States. They were looking for a better life in the west. They were also looking for a place where they could start a new life.

2. The Great Migration

3. The Great Migration was the movement of people from the eastern United States to the western United States. It was a large-scale movement of people that took place between 1800 and 1850. The people who migrated were mostly from the eastern United States. They were looking for a better life in the west.

4. The Great Migration was caused by a number of factors. One of the main factors was the search for a better life in the west. Another factor was the desire for a place where they could start a new life.

5. The Great Migration had a major impact on the western United States. It helped to develop the west and made it a more important part of the United States. It also helped to create a new identity for the western United States.

3. The First Frontier and the Great Migration

6. The first frontier and the Great Migration were closely related. The first frontier was the land that the pioneers came to, and the Great Migration was the movement of people from the eastern United States to the western United States. The two events were part of the same process.

7. The first frontier and the Great Migration were also part of a larger process. This process was the westward expansion of the United States. It was the process of moving the boundaries of the United States westward.

8. The first frontier and the Great Migration were also part of a larger process. This process was the westward expansion of the United States. It was the process of moving the boundaries of the United States westward.
