School-University-Community Collaboration for Civic Education and Engagement in the Democratic Project

Martin Reardon, Jack Leonard, 2022-05-01 The Campaign for the Civic Mission of Schools 2011 lamented the lack of high quality civic education in America's schools that leaves millions of citizens without the wherewithal to make sense of our system of government p 4 Preus et al 2016 cited literature to support their observation of a decline in high quality civic education and a low rate of civic engagement of young people p 67 Shapiro and Brown 2018 asserted that civic knowledge and public engagement is at an all time low p 1 Writing as a college senior Flaherty 2020 urged educators to bravely interpret national local and even school level incidents as chances for enhanced civic education and to discuss them with students in both formal and casual settings p 6 In this eighth volume in the Current Perspectives on School University Community Research series we feature the work of brave educators who are engaged in schooluniversity community collaborative educational endeavors Authors focus on a wide range of projects oriented to civic education writ large some that have been completed and some that are still in progress but all authors evince the passion for civic education that underpins engagement in the democratic project The American Journey Joyce Oldham Appleby, Alan Brinkley, James M. McPherson, 2003

Gender and Sexuality Diversity in a Culture of Limitation Tania Ferfolja, Jacqueline Ullman, 2020-05-10 Gender and Sexuality Diversity in a Culture of Limitation provides an outstanding and insightful critique of the ways that contemporary education is impacted by a range of political social and cultural influences that inform the approaches that schools take in relation to gender and sexuality diversity By applying feminist poststructural and Foucauldian frameworks the book examines the ongoing impact of broader socio cultural discourse on the lives of gender and sexuality diverse students and teachers Beginning with an overview of the impact of how a culture of limitation is realised in Australia the focus moves beyond this context to examine state and federal policies from comparable societies in countries including the USA and the UK and their effect on the production of knowledges and what's permissible to include in educational curriculum This research driven book thus provides a comparative international overview of the current state of gender and sexuality diversity in schools and convincingly demonstrates that despite some empowerment of gender and sexuality diverse individuals silencing and marginalization remain powerful forces This book will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students academics professionals and policy makers interested in the field of gender and sexuality in education It is essential reading for those involved in pre service and in service teacher education diversity education the sociology of education as well as education more generally The General Statutes of Connecticut scheme of work for Key Stage 3 National Curriculum history It offers a varied relevant and challenging scheme of work for the whole Key Stage 3 history programme of study The Holocaust provides a sensitive yet thought provoking analysis of how and why Nazi persecution of the Jews escalated into genocide in World War Two The Holocaust is a compulsory topic in Key Stage 3 National Curriculum but is also a major opportunity for citizenship education Ann Moore has built upon her experience of working with the Anne Frank Educational Trust and the Anne Frank house in Amsterdam to write a clear account of the Holocaust which places it firmly within its historical content but also allows lessons to be learnt from it for life today The central task is to assess and compile evidence about the Holocaust and to present that evidence in the form of a
