School-University-Community Collaboration for Civic Education and Engagement in the Democratic Project R. Martin Reardon, Jack Leonard, 2022-05-01 The Campaign for the Civic Mission of Schools 2011 lamented the lack of high quality civic education in America's schools that leaves millions of citizens without the wherewithal to make sense of our system of government p 4 Preus et al 2016 cited literature to support their observation of a decline in high quality civic education and a low rate of civic engagement of young people p 67 Shapiro and Brown 2018 asserted that civic knowledge and public engagement is at an all time low p 1 Writing as a college senior Flaherty 2020 urged educators to bravely interpret national local and even school level incidents as chances for enhanced civic education and to discuss them with students in both formal and casual settings p 6 In this eighth volume in the Current Perspectives on School University Community Research series we feature the work of brave educators who are engaged in schooluniversity community collaborative educational endeavors Authors focus on a wide range of projects oriented to civic education writ large some that have been completed and some that are still in progress but all authors evince the passion for civic education that underpins engagement in the democratic project

The American Journey Joyce Oldham Appleby, Alan Brinkley, James M. McPherson, 2003 Nazi and Holocaust Representations in Anglo-American Popular Culture, 1945-2020 Jeffrey Demsky, 2021-08-17 This book analyzes sensationalized Nazi and Holocaust representations in Anglo American cultural and political discourses Recognizing that this history is increasingly removed from contemporary life it explains how irreverent representations can help rejuvenate the story for successive generations of new learners Surveying seventy five years of transatlantic activities the work erects counterposing categorizes of constructive and destructive memorializing providing scholars with a new framework for elucidating both this history and its historicization

Gender and Sexuality Diversity in a Culture of Limitation Tania Ferfolja, Jacqueline Ullman, 2020-05-10 Gender and Sexuality Diversity in a Culture of Limitation provides an outstanding and insightful critique of the ways that contemporary education is impacted by a range of political social and cultural influences that inform the approaches that schools take in relation to gender and sexuality diversity By applying feminist poststructural and Foucauldian frameworks the book examines the ongoing impact of broader socio cultural discourse on the lives of gender and sexuality diverse students and teachers Beginning with an overview of the impact of how a culture of limitation is realised in Australia the focus moves beyond this context to examine state and federal policies from comparable societies in countries including the USA and the UK and their effect on the production of knowledges and what's permissible to include in educational curriculum This research driven book thus provides a comparative international overview of the current state of gender and sexuality diversity in schools and convincingly demonstrates that despite some empowerment of gender and sexuality diverse individuals silencing and marginalization remain powerful forces This book will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students academics professionals and policy makers interested in the field of gender and
