is no legal distinction between searching and handcuffing a man or a woman Gender should not be an inhibiting factor in the application of proper techniques However these techniques should be tempered with the individual officer s good judgment Police officers should not confuse the object of the search with the application of the search technique A cooperative suspect should not lull the police officer into a false sense of security The suspect s attitude is no guarantee that they will not attempt to escape when such an opportunity presents itself Topics and techniques presented in this book will be of both great interest and great value to trainers and students of law enforcement
