Seeing Dark Things The Philosophy Of Shadows:

Seeing Dark Things Roy A. Sorensen, 2008 Shadows appear to be counterexamples to the causal theory of perception After all an absence of light cannot reflect light into our eyes Roy Sorensen sets out to resolve this anomaly and to show how the causal theory solves a broad range of visual puzzles about dark things

Seeing Dark Things Roy Sorensen, 2008-01-08 Shadows appear to be counter examples to the causal theory of perception After all an absence of light cannot reflect light into our eyes Roy Sorensen sets out to resolve this anomaly and to show how the causal theory solves a broad range of visual puzzles about dark things

Seeing Dark Things Roy A. Sorensen, 2011-06-09 Roy Sorensen here defends the causal theory of perception by treating absences as causes He draws heavily on common sense and psychology to vindicate the assumption that we directly perceive absences

Shadow-Makers Stephen Kite, 2017-10-19 The making of shadows is an act as old as architecture itself From the gloom of the medieval hearth through to the masterworks of modernism shadows have been an essential yet neglected presence in architectural history Shadow Makers tells for the first time the history of shadows in architecture It weaves together a rich narrative combining close readings of significant buildings both ancient and modern with architectural theory and art history to reveal the key places and moments where shadows shaped architecture in distinctive and dynamic ways It shows how shadows are used as an architectural instrument of form composition and visual effect while also exploring the deeper cultural context tracing differing conceptions of their meaning and symbolism whether as places of refuge devotion terror occult practice sublime experience or as metaphors of the unconscious Within a chronological framework encompassing medieval baroque enlightenment sublime picturesque and modernist movements a wide range of topics are explored from Hawksmoor's London churches Japanese temple complexes and the shade patterns of Islamic cities to Ruskin in Venice and Aldo Rossi and Louis Kahn in the 20th century This beautifully illustrated study seeks to understand the work of these shadow makers through their drawings their writings and through the masterpieces they built

Grasping Shadows William Chapman Sharpe, 2017-08-04 What's in a shadow Menace seduction or salvation Immaterial but profound shadows lurk everywhere in literature and the visual arts signifying everything from the treachery of appearances to the unfathomable power of God From Plato to Picasso from Rembrandt to Welles and Warhol from Lord of the Rings to the latest video game shadows act as central players in the drama of Western culture Yet because they work silently artistic shadows often slip unnoticed past audiences and critics Conceived as an accessible introduction to this elusive phenomenon Grasping Shadows is the first book that offers a general theory of how all shadows function in texts and visual media Arguing that shadow images take shape within a common cultural field where visual and verbal meanings overlap William Sharpe ranges widely among classic and modern works revealing the key motifs that link apparently disparate works such as those by Fra Angelico and James Joyce Clementina Hawarden and Kara Walker Charles Dickens and Kumi Yamashita Showing how real world shadows have shaped the meanings of shadow imagery

Grasping Shadows guides the reader through the techniques used by writers and artists to represent shadows from the Renaissance onward The last chapter traces how shadows impact the art of the modern city from Renoir and Zola to film noir and projection systems that capture the shadows of passers by on streets around the globe Extending his analysis to contemporary street art popular songs billboards and shadow theatre Sharpe demonstrates a practical way to grasp the dark side that looms all around us

Realisms Interlinked Arindam Chakrabarti,2019-09-19 This book brings together over 25 years of Arindam Chakrabarti s original research in philosophy on issues of epistemology metaphysics and philosophy of mind Organized under the three basic concepts of a thing out there in the world the self who perceives it and other subjects or selves his work revolves around a set of realism links Examining connections between metaphysical stances toward the world selves and universals Chakrabarti engages with classical Indian and modern Western philosophical approaches to a number of live topics including the refutation of idealism the question of the definability of truth and the possibility of truths existing unknown to anyone the existence of non conceptual perception and our knowledge of other minds He additionally makes forays into fundamental questions regarding death darkness absence and nothingness Along with conceptual clarification and progress towards alternative solutions to these substantial philosophical problems Chakrabarti demonstrates the advantage of doing philosophy in a cosmopolitan fashion Beginning with an analysis of the concept of a thing and ending with an analysis of the concept of nothing Realisms Interlinked offers a preview of a future metaphysics epistemology and philosophy of mind without borders

The Visual World of Shadows Roberto Casati,Patrick Cavanagh,2023-12-26 How the perception of shadows studied by vision scientists and visual artists reveals the inner workings of the visual system In The Visual World of Shadows Roberto Casati and Patrick Cavanagh examine how the perception of shadows as studied by vision scientists and visual artists reveals the inner workings of the visual system Shadows are at once a massive problem for vision which must distinguish them from objects or material features of objects and a resource signaling the presence location shape and size of objects Casati and Cavanagh draw up an inventory of information retrievable from shadows showing their amazing variety They present an overview of the visual system distinguishing between measurement and inference They discuss the shadow mission the work done by the visual brain to parse and perhaps discard the information from shadows shadow ownership the association of a shadow with the object that casts it shadow labeling the visual system s ability to tell shadows from nonshadows and the shadow concept our knowledge about shadows as a category Casati and Cavanagh then apply the theoretical apparatus they have developed for shadows to other phenomena illumination reflection and transparency Finally they examine the art of the shadow paying tribute to artists exploration of shadow analyzing a series of artworks reproduced in color from a rich and fascinating art historical corpus Artificial Darkness Noam M. Elcott, 2016-05-30 This ambitious study explores how important darkness artificial darkness was as an actual technology in producing not just photographs but visual novelties and experiments in cinema in the nineteenth century The study plays out against a backdrop of urban history where most scholars have focused on the growth of artificial light and the electrification of cities Elcott's study challenges that approach In considering zones of darkness it ranges from the sites of production darkrooms studios to those of reception theaters cinemas arcades that shaped modern media and perceptions He argues that in the nineteenth century the avant garde was often less interested in the filmed image than in everything surrounding it the screen the projected light the darkness the experience of disembodiment He argues that darkness has a history separate from night evil or the color black and has a specifically modern manifestation as a media technology We are all aware of the velvet light trap in photography but at the heart of this book are technologies of darkness crucial to cinema that were commonly known as the black screen but have over time faded from the storied discourse How I Became a Tree Sumana Roy, 2021-08-31 An exquisite lovingly crafted meditation on plants trees and our place in the natural world in the tradition of Robin Wall Kimmerer's Braiding Sweetgrass and Annie Dillard's Pilgrim at Tinker Creek I was tired of speed I wanted to live tree time So writes Sumana Roy at the start of How I Became a Tree her captivating adventurous and self reflective vision of what it means to be human in the natural world Drawn to trees wisdom their nonviolent way of being their ability to cope with loneliness and pain Roy movingly explores the lessons that writers painters photographers scientists and spiritual figures have gleaned through their engagement with trees from Rabindranath Tagore to Tomas Tranströmer Ovid to Octavio Paz William Shakespeare to Margaret Atwood Her stunning meditations on forests plant life time self and the exhaustion of being human evoke the spacious relaxed rhythms of the trees themselves Hailed upon its original publication in India as a love song to plants and trees and an ode to all that is unnoticed ill neglected and yet resilient How I Became a Tree blends literary history theology philosophy botany and more and ultimately prompts readers to slow down and to imagine a reenchanting world in which humans live more like trees Memory, Historic Injustice, and Responsibility W. James Booth, 2019-11-05 What is it to do justice to the absent victims of past injustice given the distance that separates us from them Grounded in political theory and guided by the literature on historical justice W James Booth restores the dead to their central place at the heart of our understanding of why and how to deal with past injustice Testimonies and accounts from the race war in the United States the Holocaust post apartheid South Africa Argentina's Dirty War and the conflict in Northern Ireland help advance and defend Booth's claim that caring for the dead is a central part of addressing past injustice Memory Historic Injustice and Responsibility is an insightful and original book on the relationship of past and present in thinking about what it means to do justice A valuable addition to the currently available literature on historical justice the volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of political science philosophy history and law Ontology, Modality, and Mind Alexander

Carruth, Sophie C. Gibb, John Heil, 2018 This book explores a range of traditional and contemporary metaphysical themes that figure in the writings of E J Lowe whose powerful and influential work was still developing at the time of his death in 2015 Leading philosophers present new essays on topics to do with ontology necessity existence and mental causation Shades of Meaning: Shadows in Medieval Manuscript Illumination Dominique DeLuca, 2025-03-27 Are there shadows in medieval art Studies on the role of shadows in art history have either glanced over or ignored the medieval period yet people of the Middle Ages certainly saw and thought about shadows and recorded their ideas about these phenomena in texts and images This book examines references to shadows in science religion and folklore of the Middle Ages Through the lens of fifteenth century manuscript painting it investigates visual metaphorical and supernatural shadows in art to discover what shadows meant to the medieval viewer Habitus in Habitat II Sabine Flach, Jan Söffner, 2010 Which are the aspects of cognition not yet focused on as such by brain research How can one deal with them This book sheds light on the other sides of cognition on what they mean for forms and figurations of subjective cultural and social understanding In examining nuances exceptions changes emotions and absence of emotions automatized actions and meaningful relations states of minds and states of bodies the volume searches new approaches to these phenomena in discussing the relation between the habitus the habits and behavioral attitudes involved in cognition and its embeddedness in a habitat By opening a dialogue between artistic knowledge and the sciences Other Sides of Cognition investigates novel avenues and concepts within science and research At a Berlin based conference Other Sides of Cognition scholars gathered from various disciplines to discuss these issues This book broadens perspectives on the interdisciplinary field encompassing perception action and epistemic formations It offers a new view on the related field of habitus and cognition Shadows of Being Marko Uršič, 2019-01-15 This book is a study of the phenomena of shadows meant in a broader sense as symbolic forms The shadow is a less real surface replica of some more real form From the Platonic point of view empirical objects are shadows of ideas while from the modern natural point of view shadows are seen and conceived primarily as weaker replicas of bodies which give evidence of their material reality In the first three essays here several topics from the Ancient Egypt and Greece to modern arts and sciences are considered while in the fourth essay the contemporary virtual reality cyber technology and the internet as our parallel shadow world are discussed from the philosophical point of view The main and innovative point of this book is the connection between the meaning of shadows in philosophy and art on the one hand and their role in modern science and technology on the other The book will appeal to a wide span of readers from academic circles students and artists to the general reader interested in the humanities especially in philosophy and art Lighting Dance Flaviana Xavier Antunes Sampaio, 2020-10-15 Lighting Dance pioneers the discussion of the ability of lighting design to foreground shadow in dance performances Through a series of experiments integrating light shadow and improvised dance movement it highlights and analyses what it advances as an innovative expression of shadow in dance as an alternative to more conventional approaches to lighting design Different art forms such as painting film and dance pieces from Loie Fuller the Russell Maliphant Dance Company Elevenplay Pilobolus and the Tao Dance Theater served to inspire and contextualise the study From lighting to psychology from reviews to academic books shadows are examined as a symbolic and manipulative entity The book also presents the dance solo Sombreiro which was created to echo the experiments with light shadow and movement aligned to an interpretation of cultural shadow Jung 1954 in Samuels Shorter and Plaut 1986 Casement 2006 Ramos 2004 Stein 2004 and others The historical development of lighting within dance practices is also outlined providing a valuable resource for lighting designers dance practitioners and theatre goers interested in the visuality of dance performances

Visual Culture and Pandemic Disease Since 1750 Marsha Morton, Ann-Marie Akehurst, 2023-07-06 Through case studies this book investigates the pictorial imaging of epidemics globally especially from the late eighteenth century through the 1920s when amidst expanding Western industrialism colonialism and scientific research the world endured a succession of pandemics in tandem with the rise of popular visual culture and new media Images discussed range from the depiction of people and places to the invisible realms of pathogens and emotions while topics include the messaging of disease prevention and containment in public health initiatives the motivations of governments to ensure control the criticism of authority in graphic satire and the private experience of illness in the domestic realm Essays explore biomedical conditions as well as the recurrent constructed social narratives of bias blame and othering regarding race gender and class that are frequently highlighted in visual representations This volume offers a pictured genealogy of pandemic experience that has continuing resonance The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies history of medicine and medical humanities

Darkness, Depression, and Descent in Anglo-Saxon England Ruth Wehlau, 2019-05-20 This collection of essays examines the motifs of darkness depression and descent in both literal and figurative manifestations within a variety of Anglo Saxon texts including the Old English Consolation of Philosophy Beowulf Guthlac The Junius Manuscript The Wonders of the East and The Battle of Maldon Essays deal with such topics as cosmic emptiness descent into the grave and recurrent grief In their analyses the essays reveal the breadth of this imagery in Anglo Saxon literature as it is used to describe thought and emotion as well as the limits to knowledge and perception The volume investigates the intersection between the burgeoning interest in trauma studies and darkness and the representation of the mind or of emotional experience within Anglo Saxon literature

Expanding Fields of Architectural Discourse and Practice Matthew Butcher, Megan O'Shea, 2020-11-27 Expanding Fields of Architectural Discourse and Practice presents a selection of essays architectural experiments and works that explore the diversity within the fields of contemporary architectural practice and discourse Specific in this selection is the question of how and why architecture can and should manifest in a critical and reflective capacity as well as to examine how the discipline currently resonates with contemporary art practice It does so by reflecting on the first 10 years of the architectural journal P E A R 2009 to 2019 The volume argues that the initial aims of the journal to explore and celebrate the myriad forms through which architecture can exist are now more relevant than ever to contemporary architectural discourse and practice Included in the volume are architectural practitioners design researchers artists architectural theorists historians journalists curators and a paleobiologist all of whom contributed to the first seven issues of the journal Here they provide a unique presentation of architectural discourse and practice that seeks to test new ground while forming distinct relationships to recent and more longstanding historical legacies Praise for Expanding Fields of Architectural Discourse and Practice The story told by the authors of this work can thus be considered as the central tool of an architectural transgression Critique d art Rarity and the Poetic Harold Schweizer, 2016-01-12 Rarity is a quality by which things flowers leaves light sound fleetingly appear and disappear leaving in their wake a resonance of something we just thought we had glimpsed Each of the nine chapters in this book pursues such intimations of rarity in poetic ideas images and silences
