models of corporate best practice The book aims to describe and account for these Japanese corporate narratives and asks what they are why they are deployed and who believes in them As the first narrative related work in the Japanese context this volume provides an insight into the development of Japanese narrative management It will appeal to students and scholars of Japanese Business International Business and Organizational Studies Counter-Terrorism Networks in the European Union Claudia Hillebrand,2012-10-03

Counter-Terrorism Networks in the European Union Maintaining Democratic Legitimacy after 9 11 presents a model of democratic legitimacy for within international counter terrorism co operation Exploring the current practices of European Union EU counter terrorism policing developed after 9 11 it highlights the current significant challenges to democratic legitimacy and seeks to present tools and solutions which ensure democratic counter terrorism actions and the protection of human rights Counter terrorism policing is now a global concern with co operation between security authorities of different countries a crucial feature in the fight to prevent terrorism and extremism Yet given the emphasis on pre emption this type of policing tends to interfere to a far greater extent with the rights of the individual than traditional policing This book scrutinises the current focus of enhanced communication between counter terrorist associates at member state and EU levels within Europe alongside analysis of just how far the traditional protective mechanisms of accountability and oversight are managing to keep up with this development It proposes that current forms of counter terrorism policing within the EU should be understood as networks sets of expert institutional nodes or individual agents from at least two countries that are interconnected in order to authorize and provide security with regard to counter terrorism using the European Police Office Europol as a key example FCC Record United States. Ravi Ramamurti,Niron Hashai,2011-04-27 This Festschrift in honour of Professor Yair Aharoni a pioneer in the field of international business looks at several of these new trends in FDI what they will mean for firms and governments and the opportunities created by these developments to enrich or extend extant theory Covert Investigation Clive Harfield,Karen Harfield,2012-06-14 The third edition of Covert Investigation continues to provide a practical straightforward guide for anyone working in the area of covert investigation This edition is updated to include significant amendments to the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 brought about by the Police and Crime Act 2009 as well as revisions to the Codes of Practice Also included are discussions reflecting the considerations of Parliamentary and Home Office reviews of surveillance practice and law reviews undertaken in response to practitioner concerns about the RIPA authority regime and wider public concerns about an emerging surveillance society The book contains all the relevant legislation codes of practice and case law relating to covert investigation methods and examines the issues that investigators need to consider when deploying such investigative tools concentrating on the full implications of RIPA with regards to daily routine policing activity The authors consider each different aspect of covert investigation in turn discussing statutory provision and introducing case law alongside investigation management issues It successfully demystifies an area of investigation and enforcement that has hitherto been poorly understood It is intended to assist those planning and supervising investigations and those with a statutory obligation to sanction applications for authorised covert investigation or withhold such authority It will help officers improve the quality of RIPA applications and ensure that applications for cover investigation are made only in appropriate circumstances In particular the third edition looks at incontrovertible evidence the strict statutory and procedural frameworks governing collection of such evidence and how to minimize the risk of unwitting abuse of these powers and procedures which can lead to technical acquittals and procedural challenges at court The book forms part of the Blackstone s Practical Policing Series The series aimed at junior to middle ranking officers consists of practical guides containing clear and detailed explanations of the relevant legislation and practice accompanied by case studies illustrative diagrams and useful checklists

The Community Care Grant Great Britain: National Audit Office, 2010-07-22 Under the 141 million Community Care Grant scheme vulnerable people can claim for money to pay for essential household items Whilst Jobcentre Plus employees prioritise each request received they cannot be sure that those who apply were in most need Inequities in the budgets set for district offices mean that some high priority claims have been refused because of the limited funds available locally In addition the large volume of claims that are never likely to receive funding have to be assessed under the same process thereby adding considerably to the administrative burden Decisions are essentially based on what has been stated on the application form which makes it difficult to identify if claims are overstated and there are no checks on how the money is spent Introducing a centralised contract to supply items directly could improve the control over the scheme and achieve economies of scale of at least 14 million a year Also greater standardisation of the amount awarded for items could save up to 7.5 million a year The Department does not wholly agree with these conclusions In the Department s view it is in the nature of a discretionary scheme that there will be variations in the way in which judgments will be exercised and to operate more rigidly would fail to meet the needs of those it is designed to assist The Department notes that it is required to operate the scheme within a legal framework and under tight constraints of turnaround time and resource availability
