Mission High Kristina Rizga, 2015-08-04 This book is a godsend a moving portrait for anyone wanting to go beyond the simplified labels and metrics and really understand an urban high school and its highly individual resilient eager and brilliant students and educators Dave Eggers co founder 826 National and ScholarMatch Darrell is a reflective brilliant young man who never thought of himself as a good student He always struggled with his reading and writing skills Darrell's father a single parent couldn't afford private tutors By the end of middle school Darrell's grades and his confidence were at an all time low Then everything changed When education journalist Kristina Rizga first met Darrell at Mission High School he was taking AP calculus class writing a ten page research paper and had received several college acceptance letters And Darrell was not an exception More than 80 percent of Mission High seniors go to college every year even though the school teaches large numbers of English learners and students from poor families So why has the federal government been threatening to close Mission High and schools like it across the country The United States has been on a century long road toward increased standardization in our public schools which resulted in a system that reduces the quality of education to primarily one metric standardized test scores According to this number Mission High is a low performing school even though its college enrollment graduation attendance rates and student surveys are some of the best in the country The qualities that matter the most in learning skills like critical thinking intellectual engagement resilience empathy self management and cultural flexibility can't be measured by multiple choice questions designed by distant testing companies Rizga argues but they can be detected by skilled teachers in effective personalized and humane classrooms that work for all students not just the most motivated ones Based on four years of reporting with unprecedented access the unforgettable intimate stories in these pages throw open the doors to America's most talked about and arguably least understood public school classrooms where the largely invisible voices of our smart resilient students and their committed educators can offer a clear and hopeful blueprint for what it takes to help all students succeed Photo-Essays about Asian American Women in Life Magazine 1936 to 1965 Karen L. Ching Carter,2021-10-12

The editors of Life Magazine a mass produced picture magazine composed picture narratives that entertained informed and influenced mid twentieth century American society Photo Essays about Asian American Women in Life Magazine 1936 to 1965 Hidden Narratives and Breaking Stereotypes is a rhetorical analysis of how Life Magazine's photo essays represented and shaped white American middle class attitudes toward Asian American women In the time period studied 1936 to 1965 most white Americans were exposed to Asian woman primarily through film or in illustrated drawings Hollywood in particular created caricatures depicting Asian women as evil dragon ladies or sex slaves both of which implied prostitution which affected their legal and social standing in early and mid twentieth century America The book illustrates the ways in which the Life editors utilized the photo essay as a narrative art form to counter stereotypical and racist Hollywood depictions of Asian women as prostitutes and to envision them as part of the American middle class thereby promoting a sense of national identity that included Asians as Americans This book will be of interest to scholars in the fields of women's studies cultural studies visual culture Asian American studies and history The EPIC Generation: Experiential,

Participative, Image-Driven, Connected Jose A. Fadul,2010-04-21 The characteristics of students of today were gathered from student outputs key informants and literature regarding students life style positioning and peculiar traits From the data collected key points were marked with codes extracted from the text and grouped into similar concepts From these concepts categories were formed which became the basis for an acronym to describe the peculiar characteristics of today's generation At saturation point the acronym epic was chosen to convey the four emergent themes which may literally mean extending beyond the usual or ordinary especially in size or scope Indeed the present generation is of unprecedented size in its interconnections via World Wide Web Secondly this generation is fittingly called Epic Generation because of its peculiar characteristics experiential participative image driven and connected Educating the Net Generation Bob

Pletka,2007-07-01 Educating the Net Generation How to Engage Students in the 21st Century addresses the national problem of escalating high school dropout rates and student disengagement and offers solutions as to how to best involve students of the millennial generation The book examines the unique characteristics of the Net Generation and explains how the educational expectations and needs of the Net Generation differ from their Gen X parents and Baby Boomer grandparents

It also looks at why many students resist engaging in formalized education in schools and ultimately drop out Chapters featuring student interviews and photographs synthesize the perspectives of current high school students regarding their experiences beliefs and thoughts on learning while a parallel set of parent interviews reveals what parents feel is important in their child s education and how they would like to see schools engage their children in learning Recommendations for changes in school policy and the financial investment critical to turning the situation around are also included along with an inventory checklist for parents teachers and school administrators to determine if their individual school environment has what it takes to keep students motivated and engaged Telling Stories With Photo Essays Susan Conklin

Thompson,Kayenta Williams,2009-10 The authors offer a wealth of ways to engage children in expressing meaning and documenting experiences through photographs They provide all the practical help teachers need to use this exciting medium to expand children s ways of perceiving representing and thinking about their world Carol Copple Director of Publications and Initiatives in Educational PracticeNational Association for the Education of Young Children Give children new ways to express their thoughts and ideas When children create photo essays they are encouraged to share their thoughts in an authentic and personal way This creative new resource offers teachers ready to use tools and strategies for involving children in creating photo essays as a way to communicate ideas experiences and emotions Teachers will discover how to inspire children to capture the aesthetics of their environment document historical events and personal stories keep a record of what they learn and become advocates for causes as they explore responsible citizenship The book offers ideas and examples that illustrate how photo essays can be used As part of portfolios to record what children have learned To help boost the confidence of struggling writers including English language learners and children with special needs As an alternate assessment format to engage challenged students To meet state and national standards Photo essay activities are ideal for any teacher looking for new ways to nurture student expression excitement and creativity in the classroom
