The European Dream Walter Schwimmer, 2004-01-01 Europe is a strange continent Strictly speaking it is not a continent at all but a mere peninsula tacked on to Asia from where many of its first inhabitants undoubtedly came And yet despite its huge variety of features languages landscape and peoples this smallest of continents has achieved a clear cultural identity It is certainly true that Eurospeak lacks poetry and that the myths of today are mainly nationalist chauvinistic and of the No to Europe type But says the author My Europe is not the Europe that regulates the curve on bananas quarrels over subsidies for farmers or fights for places on the Council or Commission I still believe in dreams especially the European dream The author quotes Vaclav Havel Without dreaming of a better Europe we shall never build a better Europe Going back to the origins of the European idea Dr Schwimmer traces the true content of Robert Schumann's vision and shows how this must still be our inspiration But the author goes back beyond that and looks at other visions of a Federal Europe From the Hapsburg Empire to the League of Nations and Woodrow Wilson's celebrated speech in 1918 various concepts are examined carefully In propounding his dream for the future the author takes on the Eurosceptics directly and shows how Europe must be the key to its inhabitants tackling the problems of world terrorism human rights and the internal strife of Russia and the Balkan States
