Governing Smart Cities as Knowledge Commons Brett M. Frischmann,Michael J. Madison,Madelyn Rose Sanfilippo,2023-02-09 The rise of smart or technologically advanced cities has been well documented while governance of such technology has remained unresolved Integrating surveillance AI automation and smart tech within basic infrastructure as well as public and private services and spaces raises a complex set of ethical economic political social and technological questions The Governing Knowledge Commons GKC framework provides a descriptive lens through which to structure case studies examining smart tech deployment and commons governance in different cities This volume deepens our understanding of community governance institutions the social dilemmas communities face and the dynamic relationships between data technology and human lives For students professors and practitioners of law and policy dealing with a wide variety of planning design and regulatory issues relating to cities these case studies illustrate options to develop best practice Available through Open Access the volume provides detailed guidance for communities deploying smart tech

More Safety and Security at Sports Grounds Jim Chalmers, Steve Frostdick, 2011-06 This book is a collection of articles and commentaries debating the differences between safety and security and looks at aspects of the football hooliganism problem It also presents case studies of safety and security at different venues and events as well as critiquing spectator experiences in different world venues

Between Security Markets and Protection Rackets Marc von Boemcken, 2013-02-20 Security is a social practice which constitutes different formations of political order Developing a political economy of security practice the author distinguishes these formations with a view to the actual exchanges between various providers and receivers of security services He thus departs from a popular perspective in political science which charts ongoing transformations in the global security landscape along a series of categorical divisions between state and non state or between the public and the private A more rewarding analytical perspective conceives the two most dominant security formations in the contemporary world as either based on commercial or on compulsory relations

Sport Mega-Events, Security and COVID-19 Jan Andre Lee Ludvigsen, 2022-04-07 This book examines contemporary issues of security at sports mega events SMEs It focuses on the 2020 UEFA European Football Championship Euro 2020 subsequently postponed to 2021 the third biggest SME in the global sporting calendar and a unique multi city multi country event that took place in the eye of the COVID 19 storm Drawing on stakeholder interviews policy documents media sources and existing research the book explores the constructions meanings and perceptions of security in the efforts to secure this football mega event It argues that Euro 2020 is a powerful case through which to better understand wider security governance and security related processes in present day societies which are increasingly preoccupied with notions of security safety and risk It assesses the precautionary logic and transnational knowledge transfer processes that guide security constructions surrounding SMEs in an uncertain and threat conscious world and captures the dramatic moments in which COVID 19 transitioned into a security threat with severe impacts on the world of football and well beyond Sport Mega Events Security and COVID 19 advances existing debates in the sociology of football and sport offering a critical understanding of security and safety in the modern world and giving an insight into the changing new normalities of security between 9 11 and the COVID 19 pandemic through the lens of global sport This is a fascinating reading for anybody with a professional or academic interest in sport management event management football security studies policing risk and crisis management the sociology of sport the sociology of surveillance or political science
