Seducing The Gym Teacher:

DISHONOURABLE SEDUCTION Angela Wells, Amie Hayasaka, 2018-03-10 Ginny's father collapsed and now she must manage the company while he's ill. But she's only just graduated college and the task is proving too much for her. After she makes a serious blunder one of her customers a gorgeous Greek man comes to talk to her. Furious he says that he's a friend of her father's and he wants to discuss business over dinner. She's afraid that if she turns him down he'll stop doing business with them so she accepts his invitation for her father's sake. But Ginny finds herself swept away by his clever advances and before she knows it she's kissing him.

Seduction Catherine Gildiner, 2010-05-21 During her decade in prison Kate Fitzgerald has learned a few things. The best way to survive is to absorb yourself in your own world. Never make eye contact with your fellow inmates. And the last person you can trust is your prison psychiatrist. Not only is he likely to be lazy and incompetent, really, why else wouldn't he be getting rich off of well-heeled clients instead? But if you complain about him you're going to be labelled as a permanent malcontent and denied parole. So when Dr Gardonne offers Kate a temporary absence and a job working for him she only takes it because she knows that turning him down could be worse for her in the long run. Counted in prison years of course. But the real challenge is figuring out why he would choose her. On the surface it's pretty clear. Kate has spent her incarceration immersing herself in the writings of Sigmund Freud and has become a recognized expert on his work. Dr Gardonne represents the members of a psychoanalytic organization that is being attacked at its core. Anders Konzak, the hand-picked director of the Freud academy, has been boasting to the media that his new research on Freud will bring the entire profession of psychoanalysis to its knees. He's also been receiving death threats. And Kate, as an outsider, is the only one Konzak will talk to. Though she doesn't trust Gardonne, Kate accepts his offer and she races to uncover Konzak's secrets before he publishes his work. Never one to work well with others, Kate is less than thrilled to find out Gardonne has hired a private detective to be her partner. Jackie Lawton is a hardened ex-con who has spent most of his life in prison and only recently turned things around by starting his own business. From the moment the two meet, Kate sees that it won't be easy working with a man who isn't really interested in the intellectual battle at hand and who keeps her prison time at the forefront of every conversation. And can he really be trusted? When key players who were all last seen with Kate begin to turn up dead, there's the very real possibility she's being set up by Gardonne. After all, who would believe the word of a convict serving time for murdering her husband? All she can hope is that following the threads of Konzak's research to his sources will keep her one step ahead of Gardonne and lead her to the real killer.

With Seduction Catherine Gildiner gives us not only a gripping detective story full of shifting characters and fast-paced twists but a remarkable intellectual thriller. Through the letters and papers of Sigmund Freud, Charles Darwin, and the venerable Wedgwood family, Gildiner brings the personalities and ideological conflicts of the past to life in the present. Along the way we meet an assortment of characters from social misfits to the demure but resolute Anna Freud who is still living in the London house where she brought her ailing father for the last year of his life and where she actively guards his legacy The story takes us from Toronto to Vienna London the Isle of Wight New York and back again to Toronto each locale seen through the eyes of Kate who relishes in the beauty of a world that has been denied to her for a decade Seduced Exploited X'ed Bisop James C. Zebratown Greg Donaldson, 2010-08-24 Eight years in the making this edgy in depth account follows a black felon s attempt to find a new life for himself with a white woman in a small town neighborhood where as the book s title implies such relationships are common A remarkably intense read Zebratown reveals a rhythm of life spiked with violence betrayal sex and the emotional dangers created by passionate love Greg Donaldson s Zebratown follows the life of Kevin Davis an ex con from Brownsville Brooklyn who after his release from prison moves to Elmira New York and takes up with Karen a young woman with a six year old daughter Kevin is seemingly the embodiment of hip hop gangsterism a heavily muscled feared thug who has beaten a murder rap And yet as Donaldson s stunning reportage reveals Kevin has survived on the streets and in prison with a sharp intelligence and a rigid code of practical morality and physical fitness while yearning to make a better life for himself and be a better man Month by month and year by year Donaldson follows Kevin and Karen s attempt to make a home together a quest made harder by Kevin s difficulty finding legal employment The dangerous lures of the street remain for him both in New York City and in Zebratown and he is not always successful at avoiding them Meanwhile as Kevin and Karen struggle the reader comes to care for them even as they act in ways that society may not condone Theirs is a complex story with many moments of drama suffering desire and revelation a story that is frequently astonishing and unforgettable to the end Like Adrian Nicole LeBlanc in Random Family Donaldson explores a largely hidden world such immersion journalism is difficult to achieve but uniquely powerful to read In addition to spending long periods with Kevin and Karen Donaldson interviews policemen judges family members and others in Kevin and Karen's orbit providing a remarkably panoramic account of their lives Relationships between white women and black men have long been a hot issue in American culture Even years after the 2008 presidential election when society has in some ways seemingly moved on to a postracial perspective people still have a lot to say about interracial relationships Zebratown takes us into the heart of one and offers the paradoxical truth that while race is rarely not an issue in such relationships in the end what transpires between a couple is intensely individual Meanwhile the difficulty that ex cons have successfully reentering society is an ongoing problem for them their families and the communities where they live Zebratown makes this struggle real as Kevin Davis confronts not only his criminal record and his poor formal education but the cruelties of the postindustrial economy Both his and Karen's stories resonate powerfully with twenty first century American reality and in telling them Greg Donaldson confirms his position as one of the most intrepid journalists at work today
