The Best One-act Plays of ... Margaret Gardner Mayorga,1951 Seduced by the Light Alexandra Rimer,2023-05-01

Seduced by the Light is the first and only biography of Mina Miller Edison the wife of Thomas Edison the woman who created and shaped the myth of one of the most seminal figures in America's history The Thomas Edison we think we know was essentially created by Mina Miller Edison Exhaustively researched by author Alexandra Rimer this account draws on unprecedented access to Edison family diaries memoirs and letters to look below the surface of the Edison family during the Gilded Age from the little known perspective of this female protagonist Following his first wife's death Thomas Edison went in search of the next mother to his children and chose a wealthy twenty year old socialite from Ohio who was nineteen years his junior What Mina did not know at the time was that Edison was a terrible father completely neglecting his children and ultimately Mina herself Absorbed in his work he only interacted with his family at dinner and sometimes not even then The result was a dysfunctional family overseen by a saintly matriarch who went to great lengths to protect Edison's reputation as well as that of his wayward children

Selected One-act Plays for Radio Ireneusz Iredyński,2002 This vibrant anthology of radio plays features works by one of Poland's angry young men playwrights Ireneusz Iredynski made his d but in literature as a Polish angry young man in the late 1950s He moved with great versatility from verse to stage plays film scripts and plays for radio While some of the plays in this collection seem to present a bleak view of life they show a gentler side of Iredynski Here it is people's dreams rather than their worst nightmares that are explored In these plays situations are kept simple and the theatrical technique is spare and economical but yet the playwright demonstrates an unfailing theatrical flair and shows himself a master of dramatic tension and the final unexpected twist

The Creative Self Tamara Bibby,2017-08-07 The Creative Self engages with the work of the psychoanalyst D W Winnicott to develop alternative ways of thinking about key issues at the heart of pedagogy specifically pedagogic relationships creativity defiance and compliance These issues underpin the desires and defences of professionals located in educational institutions such as the desire to know what is best to know how to reach all learners normalised expectations of behaviours and outcomes and sometimes challenging engagements with students and the curriculum Each chapter provides both a theoretical focus and illustrative demonstrations of the ways in which Winnicott's theories may be relocated and used productively as tools for professional and academic reflexivity By building extensively on Winnicott's understanding of the ways in which relationships facilitate or hinder the development of the self this book extends his clinical focus on parental and analytical relationships to think about the ways in which the pedagogic relationship can provide an environment in which people may or may fail to develop as learners This approach provides powerful ways of thinking about pedagogy and pedagogic relationships that stand apart from the cognitive and rationalist tradition This focus can be used constructively to support people working in educational settings to re-establish a sense of personal and professional autonomy in an environment recently typified by compliance The Creative Self is an
