John Dee: Interdisciplinary Studies in English Renaissance Thought Stephen Clucas, 2006-06-18 Intellectual History and the Identity of John Dee In April 1995 at Birkbeck College University of London an interdisciplinary colloquium was held so that scholars from diverse fields and areas of expertise could 1 exchange views on the life and work of John Dee Working in a variety of fields intellectual history history of navigation history of medicine history of science history of mathematics bibliography and manuscript studies we had all been drawn to Dee by particular aspects of his work and participating in the colloquium was to confront other narratives about Dee's career an experience which was both bewildering and instructive Perhaps more than any other intellectual figure of the English Renaissance Dee has been fragmented and dispersed across numerous disciplines and the various attempts to reintegrate his multiplied image by reference to a particular world view or philosophical outlook have failed to bring him into focus This volume records the diversity of scholarly approaches to John Dee which have emerged since the synthetic accounts of I R F Calder Frances Yates and Peter French If these approaches have not succeeded in resolving the problematic multiplicity of Dee s activities they will at least deepen our understanding of specific and local areas of his intellectual life and render them more historiographically legible Sepher Rezial Hemelach Steve Savedow,2025-09-12 Sepher Rezial Hemelach is the longawaited first English translation of this famous magical text a translation from the ancient Hebrew in the rare and complete 1701 Amsterdam edition According to Hebrew legend the Sepher Rezial was presented to Adam in the Garden of Eden given by the hand of God and delivered by the angel Rezial The myth thus suggests that this is the first book ever written and of direct divine provenance A diverse compendium of ancient Hebrew magical lore this book was quite possibly the original source for later traditional literature on angelic hierarchy astrology Qabalah and Gematria Moses Gaster mentions this in his introduction to The Sword of Moses 1896 suggesting that the Sepher Rezial could be a primary source for many magic and qabalistic books of the Middle Ages Sepher Rezial Hemelach is a compilation of five books The Book of the Vestment The Book of the Great Rezial The Holy Names The Book of the Mysteries and The Book of the Signs of the Zodiac It includes extensive explanatory text on the holy names of God the divisions of Heaven and Hell the names and hierarchy of the angels and spirits as well as symbolic interpretations of both the Book of Genesis and Sepher Yetzirah It also includes material on astronomy astrology gematria and various magical talismans most notably those used for protection during childbirth In his introduction Steve Savedow details the history bibliographical citations and lineage of this famous work He lists the old and rare manuscripts still in existence and provides a bibliography of other reference works for study of the Western esoteric tradition The Journal of English and Germanic Philology ,1929 Sephardim and Ashkenazim Sina Rauschenbach,2020-11-09 Sephardic and Ashkenazic Judaism have long been studied separately Yet scholars are becoming ever more aware of the need to merge them into a single field of Jewish Studies This volume opens new perspectives and bridges traditional gaps The authors are not simply contributing to their respective fields of Sephardic or Ashkenazic Studies Rather they all include both Sephardic and Ashkenazic perspectives as they reflect on different aspects of encounters and reconsider traditional narratives Subjects range from medieval and early modern Sephardic and Ashkenazic constructions of identities influences and entanglements in the fields of religious art halakhah kabbalah messianism and charity to modern Ashkenazic Sephardism and Sephardic admiration for Ashkenazic culture For reasons of coherency the contributions all focus on European contexts between the fourteenth and the nineteenth centuries Book of Raziel Giovanni Grippa,2010 Lilith's Cave Howard Schwartz,1991-12-12 Tales of terror and the supernatural hold an honored position in the Jewish folkloric tradition Howard Schwartz has superbly translated and retold fifty of the best of these folktales Gathered from countless sources ranging from the ancient Middle East to twelfth century Germany and later

Eastern European oral tradition these captivating stories include Jewish variants of the Pandora and Persephone myths

Weiner,2013-03-07 MURIEL MCCARTHY This volume originated from a seminar organised by Richard H Popkin in Marsh s Library on July 7 8 1994 It was one of the most stimulating events held in the Library in recent years Although we have hosted many special seminars on such subjects as rare books the Huguenots and Irish church history this was the first time that a seminar was held which was specifically related to the books in our own collection It seems surprising that this type of seminar has never been held before although the reason is obvious Since there is no printed catalogue of the Library scholars are not aware of its contents In fact the collection of books by late seventeenth and early eighteenth century European authors on for example such subjects as biblical criticism political and religious controversy is one of the richest parts of the Library s collections Some years ago we were informed that of the 25 000 books in Marsh s at least 5 000 English books or books printed in England were printed between 1640 and 1700
