Frida Kahlo & Diego Rivera Gerry Souter, 2019-12-09 They met in 1928 Frida Kahlo was then 21 years old and Diego Rivera was twice her age He was already an international reference she only aspired to become one An intense artistic creation along with pain and suffering was generated by this tormented union in particular for Frida On both continents America and Europe these committed artists proclaimed their freedom and left behind them the traces of their exceptional talent In this book Gerry Souter brings together both biographies and underlines with passion the link which existed between the two greatest Mexican artists of the 20th century

Frida Kahlo Gerry Souter, 2015-09-15 Behind Frida Kahlo's portraits lies the story of both her life and work It is precisely this combination that draws the reader in Frida's work is a record of her life and rarely can we learn so much about an artist from what she records inside the picture frame Frida Kahlo truly is Mexico's gift to the history of art She was just eighteen years old when a terrible bus accident changed her life forever leaving her handicapped and burdened with constant physical pain But her explosive character raw determination and hard work helped to shape her artistic talent And although he was an obsessive womanizer the great painter Diego Rivera was by her side She won him over with her charm talent and intelligence and Kahlo learnt to lean on the success of her companion in order to explore the world thus creating her own legacy whilst finding herself surrounded by a close knit group of friends Her personal life was turbulent as she frequently left her relationship with Diego to one side whilst she cultivated her own bisexual relationships Despite this Frida and Diego managed to save their frayed relationship The story and the paintings that Frida left us display a courageous account of a woman constantly on a search of self discovery

Family Constellations in Contemporary Ibero-American and Slavic Literatures Anna Artwińska, Ángela Calderón, Jobst Welge, 2024-10-07 This volume examines Ibero American as well as Slavic literatures of the 21st century and studies how historical imaginaries in family narratives are functionalized for both individual and collective and post national identities The analysis proceeds along three conceptual axes What these narratives have in common is that they construct specific constellations of the historical imagination and of family whereby family is here conceived not so much as an organic micro unity but rather as changing multiple relations between individual members godparents first and second degree relatives non blood related family members present and absent members adopted children etc Furthermore these novels are often grounded in trans generational memories They are written by members of a generation that as a rule did not directly experience these historical events It is also significant that these narratives are no longer conceived as representing national identities but paradigmatically speak for a collective that defines itself in regional ethnic religious or ideological terms It seems therefore that these narratives of family constellations are in need of more flexible typological rubrics and interpretive frameworks Intended as a sustained comparative study of these family narratives this volume is a contribution in understanding how historical caesura experiences and their literary representation work on the self understanding of the

Reconnecting Joseph J. Luciani,2009-04-01 There s no doubt about it every conflict in every relationship involves two people with two different perceptions and every solution requires two partners to arrive at a single shared perception You can t repair a damaged relationship by yourself and you can t change your partner into someone else Does that mean the situation is hopeless Absolutely not In Reconnecting Dr Joseph Luciani the celebrated author of the renowned Self Coaching series introduces a proven practical method you can follow to encourage your less than cooperative partner to join you in a meaningful healing process even if you have to take the first steps on your own Dr Luciani begins by helping you evaluate your own level of insecurity and using his Self Talk technique do something to improve it He shows you how to use Self Talk to become a catalyst for change in your relationship by eliminating your contribution to the problem You ll identify your own personality patterns and use Self Talk to let go of personal baggage stop listening to what hurts you and see the problem as a whole Next you ll learn how to apply Catalytic Self Coaching to your relationship You ll find out what it means to create a relationship vacuum and you ll start working with Self Self Us Portraits You ll also discover how to risk trusting each other and to begin coaching each other away from destructive habits and toward a more truthful and loving relationship This eye opening and life changing guide offers constant support on your journey toward a more loving and rewarding relationship You ll find plenty of prescriptive advice to help you make sense of your own personality patterns and cope with the anxiety and depression that often accompany difficult relationships Dr Luciani s success stories of patients who have changed their lives will help you realize that you re not alone and there is hope Complete with a valuable discussion of the essential principles of successful relationships and how to put them into action every day Reconnecting is the resource you need to break free of destructive habits and create a new more secure relationship that brings you the companionship commitment trust and true love you need Literacy Centers for Math Skills Teacher Created Resources,2004-04-20 These easy to use activities are based on standards and accompanied by age appropriate assessments from back cover

Figuring Out Figurative Art Derek Matravers,Damien Freeman,2021-06-29 In 1797 Friedrich Schlegel wrote that philosophy of art usually lacks one of two things either the philosophy or the art This collection of essays contains both the philosophy and the art It brings together an international team of leading philosophers to address diverse philosophical issues raised by recent works of art Each essay engages with a specific artwork and explores the connection between the image and the philosophical content Thirteen contemporary philosophers demonstrate how philosophy can aid interpretation of the work of ten contemporary artists including Jesse Prinz on John Currin Barry C Smith and Edward Winters on Dexter Dalwood Lydia Goehr and Sam Rose on Tom de Freston Raymond Geuss on Adrian Ghenie and Chantal Joffe Hallvard Lillehammer on Paul

Noble M M McCabe and Alexis Papazoglou on Ged Quinn No l Carroll on Paula Rego Simon Blackburn and Jerrold Levinson on George Shaw Sondra Bacharach on Yue Minjun The discussion ranges over ethical political psychological and religious concepts such as irony disgust apathy inequality physiognomy and wonder to historical experiences of war Marx inspired political movements and Thatcherism and standard problems in the philosophy of art such as expression style depiction and ontology of art as well as major topics in art history such as vanitas painting photography pornography and Dadaism Many of the contributors are distinguished in areas of philosophy other than aesthetics and are writing about art for the first time All show how productive the engagement can be between philosophy more generally and art
