

A black and white illustration of a steam locomotive pulling a freight car. The locomotive is a classic design with a large smokestack at the front, a boiler, and a cab. It is pulling a freight car that has "C.P.R." written on its side. A person is standing on the freight car. The train is on tracks, and there are some rocks or debris on the ground in the foreground.

Understandably, the United States' Southern states have often been the most conservative, and the United States' Northern states have often been the most liberal. However, George C. Marshall and other conservatives have been elected the Presidents of the United States, and the many Presidents have, in turn, elected up to the top of the United States' Supreme Court. For example, the only chief justice to have been elected to the Supreme Court was a conservative, and the only chief justice to have been elected to the Supreme Court was a conservative.
