Encyclopedia Paranoiaca Henry Beard,Christopher Cerf,2012-11-20 IGNORE THIS BOOK AT YOUR PERIL Did you know that carrots cause blindness and bananas are radioactive That too many candlelight dinners can cause cancer And not only is bottled water a veritable petri dish of biohazards so is tap water by the way but riding a bicycle might destroy your sex life In Encyclopedia Paranoiaca master satirists Henry Beard and Christopher Cerf have assembled an authoritative disturbingly comprehensive and utterly debilitating inventory of things poised to harm maim or kill you all of them based on actual research about the perils of everyday life Painstakingly alphabetized cross referenced and thoroughly sourced for easy reference this book just might save your life Apologies in advance if it doesn t Beard and Cerf cite convincing evidence that everyday things we consider healthy eating leafy greens flossing washing our hands are actually harmful and items we thought were innocuous drinking straws flip flops neckties skinny jeans pose life threatening dangers Did you know that nearly ten thousand people are sent to the emergency room each year because of escalator accidents and despite what you ve heard farmers markets may actually be less safe than grocery stores And if you re crossing your legs right now you re definitely at serious risk Hilarious insightful and at times downright terrifying Encyclopedia Paranoiaca brings to light a whole host of hidden threats and looming dooms that make asteroid impacts planetary pandemics and global warming look like a walk in the park which is also emphatically not recommended The Definitive Compendium of Things You Absolutely Positively Must Not Eat Drink Wear Take Grow Make Buy Use Do Permit Believe or Let Yourself Be Exposed to Including an Awful Lot of Toxic Lethal Horrible Stuff That You Thought Was Safe Good or Healthy All Sorts of Really Bad People Who Are Out to Get Cheat Steal from or Otherwise Take Advantage of You and a Whole Host of Existential Threats and Looming Dooms That Make Global Warming Giant Meteors and Planetary Pandemics Look Like a Walk in the Park with Its High Risk of Skin Cancer Broken Bones Bee Stings Allergic Seizures Animal Attacks Criminal Assaults and Lightning Strikes

Cyber Operations and the Use of Force in International Law Marco Roscini,2014-03-14 The internet has changed the rules of many industries and war is no exception But can a computer virus be classed as an act of war Does a Denial of Service attack count as an armed attack And does a state have a right to self defence when cyber attacked With the range and sophistication of cyber attacks against states showing a dramatic increase in recent times this book investigates the traditional concepts of use of force armed attack and armed conflict and asks whether existing laws created for analogue technologies can be applied to new digital developments The book provides a comprehensive analysis of primary documents and surrounding literature to investigate whether and how existing rules on the use of force in international law apply to a relatively new phenomenon such as cyberspace operations It assesses the rules of jus ad bellum and jus in bello whether based on treaty or custom and analyses why each rule applies or does not apply to cyber operations Those rules which can be seen to apply are then discussed in the context of each specific type of cyber operation The book addresses the key questions of whether a cyber operation amounts to the use of force and if so whether the victim state can exercise its right of self defence whether cyber operations trigger the application of international humanitarian law when they are not accompanied by traditional hostilities what rules must be followed in the conduct of cyber hostilities how neutrality is affected by cyber operations whether those conducting cyber operations are combatants civilians or civilians taking direct part in hostilities The book is essential reading for everyone wanting a better understanding of how international law regulates cyber combat

Borden,2019-02-21 Skateboarding is both a sport and a way of life Creative physical graphic urban and controversial it is full of contradictions a billion dollar global industry which still retains its vibrant counter cultural heart Skateboarding and the City presents the only complete history of the sport exploring the story of skate culture from the surf beaches of 60s California to the latest developments in street skating today Written by a life long skater who also happens to be an architectural historian and packed through with full colour images of skaters boards moves graphics and film stills this passionate readable and rigorously researched book explores the history of skateboarding and reveals a vivid understanding of how skateboarders through their actions experience the city and its architecture in a unique way Citizen Killings

Deane-Peter Baker,2016-08-25 Citizen Killings Liberalism State Policy and Moral Risk offers a ground breaking systematic approach to formulating ethical public policy on all forms of citizen killings which include killing in self defence abortion infanticide assisted suicide euthanasia and killings carried out by private military contractors and so called foreign fighters Where most approaches to these issues begin with the assumptions of some or other general approach to ethics Deane Peter Baker argues that life or death policy decisions of this kind should be driven first and foremost by a recognition of the key limitations that a commitment to political liberalism places on the state particularly the requirement to respect citizens right to life and the principle of liberal neutrality Where these principles come into tension Baker shows that they can in some cases be defused by way of a reasonableness test and in other cases addressed through the application of what he calls the risk of harm principle The book also explores the question of what measures citizens and other states might legitimately take in response to states that fail to implement morally appropriate policies regarding citizen killings Athletic Director's
