Fiction (Routledge Revivals) Graham Anderson, 2014-06-23 A number of ancient novelists were skilful storytellers and resourceful literary artists and their works are often carefully individualised presentations of an ancient and distinguished heritage Ancient Fiction first published in 1984 examines the tales retold by these novelists in light of more recently discovered Near Eastern texts and in this way offers a tentative solution to Rohde's celebrated problem about the origins of the Greek novel Among the surprises that emerge are an ancient stratum of the Arabian Nights and a possible Tristan Romance as well as an animal Satyricon and a human Golden Ass This new framework is however incidental to an examination of the achievements of ancient novelists in their own right In presenting character structuring narrative imposing a veneer of sophistication or contriving a religious ethos these writers demonstrate that their work is worthy of sympathetic study rather dismissal as the pulp fiction of the ancient world
