Section: Climate and Climate Change

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

You know that the temperature and precipitation change with the seasons. But do you know what causes the seasons? The seasons result from the tilt of Earth's axis (about  $23.5^\circ$  relative to the plane of its orbit). Because of this tilt, the angle at which the sun's rays strike the Earth changes as the Earth moves around the sun.

During summer in the Northern Hemisphere, the Northern Hemisphere tilts toward the sun and receives direct sunlight. The number of hours of daylight is greatest in the summer. Therefore, the amount of time available for the sun to heat the Earth becomes greater. During summer in the Northern Hemisphere, the Southern Hemisphere tilts away from the sun and receives less direct sunlight. During summer in the Southern Hemisphere, the situation is reversed. The Southern Hemisphere is tilted toward the sun, whereas the Northern Hemisphere is tilted away.

IDENTIFYING MAIN IDEAS

One reading skill is the ability to identify the main idea of a passage. The main idea is the main focus or key idea. Frequently, a main idea is accompanied by supporting information that offers detailed facts about main ideas.

Read each question and write the answer in the space provided.

1. How much does Earth tilt on its axis? about  $23.5^\circ$  relative to the plane of its orbit
2. The number of hours of daylight is greatest when? The number of hours of daylight is greatest in the summer.
3. Where is the Northern Hemisphere in relation to the sun in summer? the Northern Hemisphere tilts toward the sun and receives direct sunlight

In the space provided, write the letter of the term or phrase that best answers the question.

4. Which of the following sentences best states the main idea of the passage?
  - a. The amount of time for the sun to heat Earth becomes greater.
  - b. The seasons result from the tilt of Earth on its axis.
  - c. The Southern Hemisphere is tilted away from the sun.
  - d. Temperature and precipitation change with the seasons.

Changing Energy John H. Perkins,2017-09-12 Changing Energy outlines how humanity established the current energy economy through three previous transitions and how we now stand poised for a necessary fourth transition Human societies around the globe have received immense benefits from uses of coal oil gas and uranium sources yet we must now rebuild our energy economies to rely on renewable sources and use them efficiently The imperative for a fourth energy transition comes from dangers related to climate change geopolitical tensions documented health and environmental effects and long term depletion of today s sources John H Perkins argues that a future in which current levels of energy service benefits are sustained can come only from investments in the technologies needed to bring about a fourth energy transition Changing Energy envisions a viable post fossil fuel economy and identifies the barriers to be overcome Integrodifference

Equations in Spatial Ecology Frithjof Lutscher,2019-10-30 This book is the first thorough introduction to and comprehensive treatment of the theory and applications of integrodifference equations in spatial ecology Integrodifference equations are discrete time continuous space dynamical systems describing the spatio temporal dynamics of one or more populations The book contains step by step model construction explicitly solvable models abstract theory and numerical recipes for integrodifference equations The theory in the book is motivated and illustrated by many examples from conservation biology biological invasions pattern formation and other areas In this way the book conveys the more general message that bringing mathematical approaches and ecological questions together can generate novel insights into applications and fruitful challenges that spur future theoretical developments The book is suitable for graduate students and experienced researchers in mathematical ecology alike Words for Country Tim Bonyhady,2002 Stories and phrases can powerfully shape the ways we experience and manage our environment What languages have been used to characterise Australian landscapes and how have they influenced the way we see and treat our environment How do stories take root in particular places How do we find the right words for those parts of the country that matter to us Words for Country answers

these questions while exploring the inter relationship between Australia s landscape and language Tim Bonyhady and Tom Griffiths have brought together a collection of essays whose subjects range from the Ord River in the far north west to Antarctica in the south from the centre to the coast the prehistoric to the present Their terrain is environmental and cultural political and poetic Words for Country reveals not just how language grows out of the landscape but how words and stories shape the places in which we live      Australian Journal of Applied Science ,1963
