Motherhood, Education and Migration Taghreed Jamal Al-deen, 2019-09-19 This book draws together analysis of class gender ethnicity and processes of migration in the context of family school relationships It provides an original analysis of the role of class as gendered and ethnicised in the explanation of the reproduction of educational inequalities This book's analysis of class is developed through insights into how class gender ethnicity and religion are interrelated and connected to patterns of advantages and disadvantages in transnational flows It explores parental involvement in children's education in the migratory context as a key site for the analysis of social class positioning and repositioning focusing on a group of migrant Muslim mothers living in Australia This book sheds lights on the interconnection of class gender ethnicity and religion embedded in migrant mothers lives and the roles of these facets in regard to the education of their children Delving into Muslim migrant mothers practices and beliefs concerning their involvement provides new understanding of how support of children's education is shaped by the process of migration along with the neoliberal reforms of education systems and in particular repositioning of social class

Boundary-Spanning in Organizations Janice Langan Fox, Cary Cooper, 2013-11-12 In more recent times the essence of the gatekeeper's role has moved to the boundary spanner a systems thinker who understands the specific needs and interests of the organization and whose greatest asset is their ability to move across and through the formal and informal features of the modern organization There are many types of boundaries associated with an organization for example horizontal function and expertise vertical status hierarchy geographic demographic and stakeholder Boundaries are the defining characteristic of organizations and boundary roles are the link between the environment and the organization Aldrich Herker 1977 with functions crucial to the effectiveness and success of the organization Despite being a critical success factor for an organization beginning in the 1970s the term boundary spanning has had an intermittent research history there has been no systematic body of research that has evolved over time This book aims to invigorate excite and expand the literature on boundary spanning in a diverse range of disciplines such as sociology organizational psychology management medicine defence health social work and community services The book serves as the first collection of reviews on boundary spanning in organizations

Adolescence and Body Image Lina A

Ricciardelli, Zali Yager, 2015-11-19 Body image is a significant issue for the majority of adolescents. Anxieties relating to body image can be crippling across both genders, their debilitating effects sometimes leading to mental health problems. This important book is the first of its kind to focus specifically on adolescents, providing a comprehensive overview of the biological, psychological, and socio-cultural factors relating to the development of body image. It also provides a detailed review of the measures which can be taken to address body dissatisfaction. Discussing the role of culture, family, peers, schools, sport, and media in stimulating a negative body image, the book also examines the different challenges faced by girls and boys as they grow. Eating disorders and body change strategies are also addressed, as well as the challenges faced by youngsters affected by conditions causing visible differences such as hair loss in cancer patients. The book also presents original research, including the results from a large Australian study of the body image and associated health behaviours of adolescent boys and the results of a study of current teaching practices relating to body image. Adolescence and Body Image will be ideal reading for students and researchers from a variety of fields, including developmental health and social psychology, sociology, and cultural and health studies. Professionals working with young people, whether in education, health promotion, or any other allied discipline, will also find this book an invaluable resource.

Inclusion, Equity, Diversity, and Social Justice in Education Sara Weuffen, Jenene Burke, Margaret Plunkett, Anitra Goriss-Hunter, Susan Emmett, 2023-03-12 This book presents an edited collection of critical discourse situated in the fields of diversity and inclusion, broadly and more specifically within the discipline of education. Each chapter articulates the importance of educational diversity in achieving the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 4. The edited collection presents a grounding narrative of equitable learning opportunities and experiences via interpretivist theoretical frameworks and student-centered methodologies. The combination of these approaches, combined within the strong and scholarly informed social justice lens, reminds us that the onus of education is to acknowledge, recognise, respect, and engage with the diverse student cohorts, learning needs, and multiple knowledges and cultures that exist in educational contexts. This edited collection creates a holistic discourse around the experiences, interrogations, and innovations occurring within education communities to foreground deeper and more holistic understanding of the intersectionality of diversity and inclusion existing within the contemporary educational settings.
