Southern Africa Report ,2007 Geographies of Health and Development Rachel Bezner Kerr,Isaac Luginaah,2016-03-03 The geographies of health and development is an emerging sub discipline tying in with many of the conceptual theoretical and practical components of other disciplines working in health health care economics and international development Spatially and theoretically grounded in geography this collection offers a fresh perspective on the dialectic relationships between health and development Health problems in a developing context take on much higher rates of prevalence as a result of the varied cultural structural and economic vulnerabilities of the people they impact This book begins by exploring some of the circumstances surrounding the distinctive health inequities currently facing many developing countries including malaria maternal mortality and HIV AIDS This is followed by a discussion of how matters of physical access and human resource issues and perhaps most importantly the challenges of financing together shape the access and utilization of health care Examining how the environment interacts to influence the health of the people that live there the next section includes discussion around challenges of food in security and the importance of clean and uncontaminated water for health Finally the book explores the influence of globalization on health specifically within the urban environment against the backdrop of global health policy

Popular Politics and Resistance Movements in South Africa William Beinart,Marcelle C. Dawson,2010-12-01 An examination of post apartheid politics This volume explores some of the key features of popular politics and resistance before and after 1994 It looks at continuities and changes in the forms of struggle and ideologies involved as well as the significance of post apartheid grassroots politics Is this a new form of politics or does it stand as a direct descendent of the insurrectionary impulses of the late apartheid era Posing questions about continuity and change before and after 1994 raises key issues concerning the nature of power and poverty in the country Contributors suggest that expressions of popular politics are deeply set within South African political culture and still have the capacity to influence political outcomes The introduction by William Beinart links the papers together places them in context of recent literature on popular politics and history from below and summarises their main findings supporting the argument that popular politics outside of the party system remain significant in South Africa and help influence national politics The roots of this collection lie in post graduate student research conducted at the University of Oxford in the early twenty first century Summary of David Bornstein's How to Change the World Everest Media,2022-05-16T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 Social entrepreneurs are people who solve social problems on a large scale They have powerful ideas to improve people s lives and they have implemented them across cities countries and in some cases the world 2 Social entrepreneurship is a global phenomenon and the world s most creative problem solvers are not concentrated in the United States and Canada Around the world people are encountering similar problems and they need solutions 3 Social entrepreneurship is the leading edge of a remarkable development that has occurred across the world over the past three decades the emergence of millions of new citizen organizations 4 The citizen sector is a new group of non profit and non governmental organizations that are growing worldwide They are being pressed to demonstrate their efficacy and it is becoming safer for organizations to change and innovate Manual of Community Nursing and Communicable Diseases Marie E. Vlok,1996-01-28 This edition written as South Africa moves from expensive curative health care to a more people focused primary health care system highlights transitional structures and bridges the gap between past and present Part One focuses on the Government of National Unity and population development programmes emphasising the role of community nurses in the primary health care system Subsequent sections cover factors playing an important role in community nursing including housing urbanisation and malnutrition In accordance with the National Health care Plan for South Africa prominence is given to issues such as health education and maternal and child health care The section on communicable diseases has been updated and takes into account changes in legislation and the latest statistical information Primary health care problems at community level are covered in depth Students and practitioners will benefit from the wealth of information in this new edition Beyond the Apartheid Workplace Eddie Webster,Karl Von Holdt,2005 Has the apartheid workplace changed over the past ten years of democracy in South Africa In order to answer this question the contributors of this book studied seventeen different workplaces including BMW a state hospital footwear sweatshops and the wine farming industry The editors broaden the definition of work to cover studies of the informal economy including street traders homeworkers and small rural enterprises Beyond the Apartheid Workplace shows how South Africa s triple transition towards political democracy economic liberalization and post colonial transformation has generated contradictory pressures at workplace levels A wide range of managerial strategies and union responses are identified demonstrating both continuities and discontinuities with past practices These studies reveal a growing differentiation within the world of work between stable formal sector work casualized and outsourced work and informal work where people struggle to make a living on the margins of the formal economy The majority of workplaces are marked by the persistence and reconfiguration of the apartheid legacy Deepening poverty and exclusion have been generated among great numbers of workers and their dependents Labour Disrupted Malehoko Tshoaedi,Andries Bezuidenhout,Janet Cherry,Nomkhosi Xulu-Gama,Mondli Hlatshwayo,Mpho Mmadi,Aisha

Lorgat, Siphelo Ngcwangu, Babalwa Magoqwana, Sandla Nomvete, John Mashayamombe, Jantjie Xaba, Lucien van der Walt, Edward Webster, 2023-10 Labour Disrupted reflects on the past and the future of labour primarily in South Africa but also globally. It focuses on how South Africa's lockdown during the Covid 19 pandemic further exposed key contradictions and challenges that labour movements face. The contributions include a diverse range of topics currently engaged with by those actively engaged in the field of labour movement. Essays by academics and activists tackle thorny issues from redefining democracy in South Africa to experiences of inclusiveness or lack thereof in workplace environments by women young people migrant workers LGBTI people and people living with disabilities. The volume addresses contemporary issues related to the use of technology and the impact of the fourth industrial revolution on the youth and the working class and the challenges of skills development and restructuring in the workplace. Publisher Who's who of Southern Africa, 2005

Vols for 1967-70 include as a section Who's who of Rhodesia Mauritius Central and East Africa Social Memory as a Force for Social and Economic Transformation Muxe Nkondo, 2023-02-01 This volume of essays is a reflection on social memory as a force for social and economic transformation. Written by scholars and organic intellectuals it focuses on the uses of social memory in particular the conflict between the legacies of colonialism and the movement for fundamental change. The content addresses both experts and ordinary citizens alike with a view to advancing discourse on where we are right now and how we move on from here to achieve meaningful transformation. As scholars and public representatives with a deep understanding of the social economic and political dynamics of modern history of South Africa the contributors offer their unique perspectives and reflections on history politics economics culture education ethics and the arts as well as the links that bind these aspects into an ecology of ideas and attitudes The JSE Handbook, 1999 Migration and Health Sandro Galea, Catherine K. Ettman, Muhammad H. Zaman, 2022-11-25 A new introduction to a timeless dynamic how the movement of humans affects health everywhere. International migrants compose more than three percent of the world's population and internal migrants those migrating within countries are more than triple that number. Population migration has long been and remains today one of the central demographic shifts shaping the world around us. The world's history and its health is shaped and colored by stories of migration patterns the policies and political events that drive these movements and narratives of individual migrants. Migration and Health offers the most expansive framework to date for understanding and reckoning with human migration's implications for public health and its determinants. It interrogates this complex relationship by considering not only the welfare of migrants but also that of the source destination and ensuing generation populations. The result is an elevated interdisciplinary resource for understanding what is known and the considerable territory of what is not known at an intersection that promises to grow in importance and influence as the century unfolds Policy and Politics for Nurses and Other Health Professionals: Advocacy and Action Donna M. Nickitas, Donna J. Middaugh, Veronica Feeg, 2018-08-22 Policy and Politics for Nurses and Other Health Professionals Third Edition focuses on the idea that all healthcare providers require a fundamental understanding of the healthcare system including but not limited to knowledge required to practice their discipline The Report: South Africa 2012 ,2012 Public Sociology Michael Burawoy,2021-09-08 Michael Burawoy has helped to reshape the theory and practice of sociology across the Western world Public Sociology is his most thoroughgoing attempt to explore what a truly committed engaged sociology should look like in the twenty first century Burawoy looks back on the defining moments of his intellectual journey exploring his pivotal early experiences as a researcher such as his fieldwork in a Zambian copper mine and a Chicago factory He recounts his time as a graduate and professor during the ideological ferment in sociology departments of the 1970s and explores how his experiences intersected with a changing political and intellectual world up to the present Recalling Max Weber Burawoy argues that sociology is much more than just a discipline it is a vocation to be practiced everywhere and by everyone South African Labour Bulletin ,2005 Gaffney's Local Government in South Africa ,1999 Migration, free movement and regional integration Nita, Sonja,Pécoud, Antoine,Lombaerde, Philippe de,Neyts, Kate,Gartland, Joshua,United Nations University. UNU-CRIS,2017-12-18 Current Issues in Nursing Joanne McCloskey Dochterman,Helen K. Grace,1997 Chapters in this outstanding text are grouped into sections focusing on major themes Each features an overview a debate chapter and several viewpoint chapters This format gives students the opportunity fo analyze conflicting viewpoints and encourages critical thinking The text boasts a well known and well respected author group allowing students to learn from recognized leaders in the field Financial Mail ,2005
