Gilray, Richard T. Witter, 2010 Comedy with Music 11 characters m or f And Then There Was Nun is written in the style of a classic 1940's murder mystery and is a blend of humor and who dun it as the actors emulate iconic movie stars of the past Take one foreboding mansion on a secluded island throw in ten whacked out members of The Holy Order of the Sisters of San Andreas stir in their unseen and mysterious leader add an assortment of the sharpest tongues this side of Hollywood and Vine then infuse with a health The Song Index of the Enoch Pratt Free Library Ellen Luchinsky, 2020-12-23

The Song Index features over 150 000 citations that lead users to over 2 100 song books spanning more than a century from the 1880s to the 1990s The songs cited represent a multitude of musical practices cultures and traditions ranging from ethnic to regional from foreign to American representing every type of song popular folk children's political comic advertising protest patriotic military and classical as well as hymns spirituals ballads arias choral symphonies and other larger works This comprehensive volume also includes a bibliography of the books indexed an index of sources from which the songs originated and an alphabetical composer index Heart in Conflict Michael Grimwood, 2009-01-01

Heart in Conflict is a study of two periods of intense vocational crisis in William Faulkner's career as a writer his time of apprenticeship before the composition of The Sound and the Fury and the beginnings in the late 1930s and early 1940s of the long season of decline that followed the completion of Absalom Absalom These periods of crisis Michael Grimwood argues grew out of an ongoing tension between the divided components of Faulkner's personality between two versions of himself the illiterate bumpkin and the sophisticated aesthete It was a collaboration between these two postures that formed Faulkner's vocation that created the impulse to translate the rural unlettered world of Oxford Mississippi into a literature of the highest ambitions But Faulkner was neither bumpkin nor aesthete His awareness of the fraudulence of both his self images and ultimately his art caused him to create beginning with The Wild Palms in 1939 novels divided against themselves both structurally and thematically novels whose complexities emanate from their author's own complex personality Grimwood traces the formation of Faulkner's divided personality in his childhood and youth in the conflicting influences of literature and landscape in the conflicting urges wrought by a mother who called him to the rigors of the schoolhouse and a father whose interests led to the diffuse pleasure of the world outside The conflict gained dimension when Faulkner's earliest poems written in the style of the European pastoral were mocked by students in the pages of the University of Mississippi literary magazine Faulkner internalized this mockery and it would emerge in the late 1930s and early 1940s as a destructively self critical compulsion to write novels The Wild Palms The Hamlet Knight's Gambit and Go Down Moses that were simultaneously pastoral and mock pastoral that reflected both an impulse to bequeath his own substance through words and a virtual surrender to illiteracy In many ways the tensions that divided Faulkner tensions between pastoral ideal and rural reality between flights of language and attachment to the wordless soil also divided the whole of southern literature and society from the time of its origins Such conflicts can be found in the writings of Thomas Jefferson philosopher of democracy and slaveowner in the southwestern humor and plantation fiction that dominated southern letters in the 1830s and in the works of the agrarian writers of the 1930s whose European poesy belies their dirt road political beliefs Showing how the tensions in the narratives mirrored tensions in the author and in his society Heart in Conflict reveals William Faulkner as he struggled with his inheritance both as a southerner and as a southern writer Reynolds's Miscellany of Romance, General Literature, Science, and Art George William MacArthur Reynolds, 1850 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
