Emancipatory Feminism in the Time of Covid-19 Vishwas Satgar, Ruth Ntlokotse, Hawzhin Azeez, Asanda Benya, Christine Bischoff, Jane Cherry, Jacklyn Cock, Samantha Hargreaves, Inge Konik, Jane Mbithi-Dikgol, Courtney Morgan, Sonia Phalatse, Busi Sibeko, Dineo Skosana, 2023-07 The Covid 19 pandemic threw into stark relief the multi dimensional threats created by neoliberal capitalism Government measures to alleviate the crisis were largely inadequate leaving women in particular working class women to carry the increased burden of care work while at the same time placing themselves in direct risk as frontline workers Emancipatory Feminism in the Time of Covid 19 the seventh volume in the Democratic Marxism series explores how many subaltern women working class peasant and indigenous challenge hegemonic neoliberal feminism through their resistance to ordinary capitalist practices and ecological extractivism Contributors cover women's responses in a wide range of contexts from women leading the defence of Rojava the Kurdish region of Syria to approaches to anti capitalist ecology and building food secure pathways in communities across Africa to championing climate justice in mining affected communities and transforming gender divisions in mining labour practices in South Africa to contesting macro economic policies affecting the working conditions of nurses Their practices demonstrate a feminist understanding of the current systemic crises of capitalism and patriarchal oppression What is offered in this collection is a subaltern women's grassroots resistance focused on advancing and enabling solidarity based political projects deepening democracy building capacities and alliances to advance new feminist alternatives

Epidemics and the Health of African Nations MISTRA MISTRA, 2019-07-25 News footage of disease in Africa is a familiar sight Yet these outbreaks are often presented out of context with no reference to the conditions that have triggered them MISTRAs new book Epidemics and the Health of African Nations aims to redress that Researchers and practitioners from within the continent explore why Africa is so vulnerable to disease and show how this vulnerability is closely linked to political and economic factors They demonstrate how these same factors determine the way epidemics are treated Authors extract lessons from case studies in different parts of Africa challenge conventional frameworks about disease to argue for a syndemics approach that takes into account the interrelationship between disease and political and socio economic contexts explore challenges of Africas future They argue that a well functioning health system is at the core of a countrys capacity to counter an epidemic This volume brings African experts together to probe possible solutions to the continents heavy burden of disease The insights offered will be helpful in devising policy for the control of disease and the combatting of epidemics in Africa

Reconstructive Surgery and Modernisation in Twentieth-Century South Africa Suryakanthie Chetty, 2023-07-28 This book traces the career of pioneering South African plastic and reconstructive surgeon Jack Penn from its beginnings during the Second World War It explores the establishment of Penn s private practice and his work in diverse countries including Gabon Japan and Israel as he sought to rectify the injury caused by conflict It also addresses his role on the President s Council established by Prime Minister P W Botha to introduce reform to the system of apartheid Penn s career is contextualised by modernisation which was a significant feature of twentieth century South Africa It was linked with race from the inception of the state in 1910 with racial segregation and paternalism Penn s work during the Second World War was part of a modernist bent by the state under Jan Smuts to take the lead in promoting science and technological development which continued during apartheid Modernisation was also fluid with state priority shifting between the two poles of development and security as apartheid policies were met with hostility both within the state and beyond its borders Within the context of decolonisation increasing black urbanisation required a balancing act on the part of the state to uphold the ideology of racial distinction while simultaneously addressing economic challenges and this was reflected in the reform initiatives under Botha Plastic and reconstructive surgery as evident in the work of Jack Penn is intertwined with this narrative of apartheid modernisation and reform It demonstrated Western prowess with medicine and development a perceived bulwark against Communism It also served as a means for the modernising apartheid state to initiate maintain or enhance alliances with other states in the facing of mounting isolation and international condemnation The career of Jack Penn then is a lens through which the contradictions complexities and anxieties of twentieth century South Africa are exposed
