compilation of a nursing portfolio is a task which is often neglected in the busy student nurse's life between long shifts and assignments Timmins Duffy encourage one to take on the challenge and guide one through the process systematically Examples of structured reflections and of portfolio layouts make the realisation of one's own well presented portfolio easier than one might think Any student or qualified nurse will thus benefit from Timmins Duffy's encouraging book Karin Schirmaier Student University of the West of England UK This book is intended for nurses at all stages of their careers and offers a much needed step by step guide to planning writing and maintaining a portfolio I was particularly pleased to see a strong emphasis on reflection and education as a means of encouraging nurses to think critically and learn from their own practice All in all this is a very well constructed book which I highly recommend Professor Gary Rolfe Swansea University UK This handy guide co published with the Nursing Standard is perfect for nurses who need to put together a portfolio and don't know where to start Written as a step by step guide it answers all the common questions about how to compile and write a good nursing portfolio Each chapter includes different tasks so you can create your portfolio as you work through the book The book assumes no prior knowledge of portfolio building and includes Examples of good and challenging portfolio pieces Tools and techniques for reflection and critical thinking Guidance on the NMC competency frameworks Writing your Nursing Portfolio is indispensable reading for all nursing students looking for a clear and accessible guide to creating and developing a portfolio The book describes how the nursing portfolio fits into clinical practice and how it can make a positive difference to the nurse patient and others

Nursing and Midwifery Portfolios Kate Andre, Marie Heartfield, 2011 The implementation of National registration requires Australian and New Zealand Nurses and Midwives to perform annual Continuing Professional Development They must also document evidence of skills acquisition activities reflection identification and prioritisation of their learning needs in a portfolio With the global trend towards e Portfolios many higher education institutions encourage the use of e Portfolios as a tool to enhance learning and demonstrate career development Nursing and Midwifery Portfolios evidence of continuing competence 2e has been thoroughly revised with a focus on e Portfolios to provide tools to structure reflect plan develop and communicate professional achievements for nurses and midwives A new chapter on Reflection highlights the value of including reflection within portfolios as a critical element towards addressing learning needs for individuals Australian and New Zealand regulatory frameworks By providing direct application to the local regulatory context including applied examples this book gives the reader the opportunity to understand the perspective of their local regulator thus assisting them in producing a product that addresses the needs of the regulator A range of portfolio approaches Through understanding a range of portfolio approaches the reader can gauge which approach best meets their needs Examination of the nature and role of evidence This assists the reader to understand the need for a range of evidence and how the different types of evidence contribute specific aspects necessary to substantiate the broader argument of competence Through the use of quality evidence the reader can compile a more compact but effective portfolio Performance and career planning The direct link made in this book between portfolios performance and career planning means that the value of this book extends beyond being a tool for undergraduate and postgraduate students Rather this text is designed to assist a range of clinicians and managers in assisting them either plan their own careers or influence others in developing careers inline with the future needs of their organisation New information about e Portfolios A new chapter on Reflection Updated regulatory requirements for National registration Aligned to NMBA CPD standards Greater emphasis on evidence based practice Increased use of examples and case studies
