Exploring Disciplinary Teaching Excellence in Higher Education Marion Heron, Laura Barnett, Kieran Balloo, 2021-08-13 This book explores disciplinary teaching excellence through a diverse range of student staff partnership research projects Despite being a highly contested term teaching excellence is something that universities aspire to and are expected to have

However the editors and contributors argue that not only are definitions of excellence often broad and generic but they lack nuanced understandings of disciplinary excellence in higher education This book begins by unpacking some of these contested definitions of teaching excellence followed by a series of co authored chapters produced by students and staff who have undertaken research projects where they examine teaching excellence in their respective disciplinary areas These chapters demonstrate that teaching excellence may be better understood as a process of becoming that is achieved through partnership between teachers and students This book will be of interest and value to students educators and policy makers concerned about teaching excellence as well as scholars of student staff partnerships
