General Radiography Christopher M. Hayre, William A.S. Cox, 2020-07-15 With chapters from globally recognized academics General Radiography shows the multifaceted approach to general radiography and how it enhances healthcare delivery Potentially influential to how healthcare delivery is offered it begins with the pertinent chapters examining image acquisition and dose optimization in diagnostic radiography Next chapters reflect and critically discuss aspects central to patient care and imaging within trauma critical care and pediatric situations The final section of this book then explores the learning teaching and education in the field of diagnostic radiography with novel strategies illustrated

The Urban Ecologies of Divided Cities Amira Osman, John Nagle, Sabyasachi Tripathi, 2023-06-12 The book discusses how division affect the fabric of cities and people s sense of identity and agency and are reflected in physical features architecture and urban planning The question of divided cities represents a complex and multistranded urban Ecology at once both social and spatial it cannot be limited to a single science or discipline such as social or spatial fields This suggests integrated and cross disciplinary understandings as well as integrated or parallel approaches and solutions Urban ecologies of division manifest in multiple forms One of their most palpable expressions is conflict with parallels around the world and often with correlations in the spatial fabric Violence in such contexts is often a surface expression of deeper socio economic or ideological differences Whether as a result of intervention by authority or by dissent between groups a divided city inevitably becomes a place of conflict in various forms and intensity eroding the joy of living and sense of collective belonging to the detriment of all In effect it erodes the collective advantage of being part of a more unified society A city exists in collections of social structures which mutually form a society A divided city implies divided social structures and in consequence a divided society The papers compiled in this book present many case studies of divided cities discussing the different causes of divisions and their effects on societies Some of the causes can be linked to conflicts wars colonialism or legislative political systems In response to the serious challenges resulting from these divisions the book aims to provide opportunities for new approaches and possibilities for new interventions and solutions making it significant to urban planners architects and policymakers

Care of Older Persons Mala Kapur Shankardass, 2024-10-23 This book explores the implications and significant ethical social economic and health challenges that an ageing world population presents It provides valuable insights on concerns related to providing organizing planning and managing care for older persons in both formal and informal settings As the number of older persons increases rapidly around the globe caring for them is a very important aspect of all ageing and aged societies While in most countries the care of older persons is provided informally by family members the changing social scene family structures and work and employment patterns are leading many nations to create provisions for formal care through institutions or paid services of caregivers This book offers perspectives on formal and informal care from countries such as Japan the Netherlands the USA India South Africa and Poland among others The essays in this book underline a rights based approach and focus on ethical social economic health and legal aspects of care as they pertain to the universal phenomena of ageing as well as the specific demographic and epidemiological realities of the selected countries They discuss concerns such as long term care provisions catering to the needs of people affected by dementia providing residential care taking the needs of family care providers into account the growing requirement for paid care workers and channelizing training of both skilled and semi skilled care providers to suit the needs of older people This volume would be of interest to scholars and those working in the fields of sociology health studies age and ageing psychology social work medical sciences nursing and public policy It will also be useful to NGO sector workers administrators as well as grassroots workers involved with the care of older persons

Geographies of Health and Development Rachel Bezner Kerr,Isaac

Luginaah,2016-03-03 The geographies of health and development is an emerging sub discipline tying in with many of the conceptual theoretical and practical components of other disciplines working in health health care economics and international development Spatially and theoretically grounded in geography this collection offers a fresh perspective on the dialectic relationships between health and development Health problems in a developing context take on much higher rates of prevalence as a result of the varied cultural structural and economic vulnerabilities of the people they impact This book begins by exploring some of the circumstances surrounding the distinctive health inequities currently facing many developing countries including malaria maternal mortality and HIV AIDS This is followed by a discussion of how matters of physical access and human resource issues and perhaps most importantly the challenges of financing together shape the access and utilization of health care Examining how the environment interacts to influence the health of the people that live there the next section includes discussion around challenges of food in security and the importance of clean and uncontaminated water for health Finally the book explores the influence of globalization on health specifically within the urban environment against the backdrop of global health policy
