Global Health Nursing in the 21st Century Suellen Breakey, Inge B. Corless, Nancy L. Meedzan, Patrice K. Nicholas, 2015-03-16 THE FIRST BOOK TO PRESENT THE SUCCESSES CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES OF GLOBAL HEALTH NURSING This text is designed specifically for nurses and nursing students who have an interest in global health as a specialty regardless of experience or education level It reflects both the unique contributions of the nursing profession and of other disciplines which is in keeping with the editors perspective on how to bring about lasting change The text views global health through a nursing lens but maintains this awareness and appreciation of interprofessionalism throughout The editors and contributors have firsthand experience of the complex dynamics in achieving global health and bring a wealth of knowledge to this important field which has grown as a course and specialty The text depicts the worldwide expansion of nursing partnerships between resource rich and resource limited countries discusses challenges and obstacles and provides cases and guidance on how to achieve global health It will appeal to all nurses from student nurses embarking on a global health experience to more experienced global health nurses who offer professional nursing expertise from around the world The text responds to a recent WHO mandate which seeks the input of nurses and midwives as part of an interprofessional team of key strategists for facilitating global health The Lancet report is also an important document used throughout the text and an interview with Dr Julio Frenk author of that report is included Social political cultural economic and environmental factors including climate change are integrated into determinants of global health The text covers the foundations of global health including the emerging concept of climate justice the ethical context of global health and the importance of interprofessional education It addresses key issues of global health with a focus on poor and vulnerable individuals particularly women and children and those living in areas of conflict In addition to describing notable accomplishments toward achieving global health the book focuses on the need for increasing access to primary care improving clinical practice through expanded education and engaging interdisciplinary researchers in discovery of viable solutions The book includes the perspectives of nurses and colleagues from other disciplines in both resource rich and resource limited countries References provide resources for additional study and PowerPoint slides and a test bank for instructors accompany the text KEY FEATURES Case studies depict real world experiences Presents firsthand knowledge of global health dynamics challenges and opportunities Provides a wealth of information from multiple perspectives Authored by contributors across a variety of clinical and academic roles who are experienced in global health nursing and global health Includes chapters written by nurses from both resource limited and resource rich countries Bantoe ,1974 African Nurse Pioneers in KwaZulu/Natal - 1920-2000 Mazo Sybil T. Buthelezi, 2004 This book is about seven African nurse pioneers in KwaZulu Natal from 1920 to 2000 The author captures the early nursing activities of the 1920s to 1970 and then moves to nurses that entered the health services in the 1950s The author also presents two nurses that worked outside South Africa i e

did their pioneering nursing in Saudi Arabia and the United States of America The author does not scoop nursing out of its context but creates a narrative that resonates in lived experiences in a world dominated by the Africanization of poverty the feminization of poverty globalization racism and xenophobia Limpopo's Legacy Anne Heffernan,2019 Argues that the historical primacy of youth politics in Limpopo South Africa has influenced the production of generations of nationally prominent youth and student activists among them Julius Malema Onkgopotse Tiro Cyril Ramaphosa Frank Chikane and Peter Mokaba Health and Educational Success Tebogo Maria Mothiba,Takalani Mutshatshi,Irene

Ramavhoya,2023-12-06 This book discusses health and educational success from a variety of perspectives It discusses the management of various health conditions such as diabetic mellitus epilepsy mental health hepatitis and HIV AIDS It covers a broad range of topics including strategies that can be used in a healthcare setting in communication as well as transmission of knowledge from one generation to another The focus of the chapters is on patients and their families physiotherapy occupational therapy biokinetics nursing medical students and their facilitators educators and institutions of higher education As such this book is relevant to a variety of sectors in health and education Women's Health and Apartheid Project on Poverty, Health, and the State in Southern Africa,1988 Working with indigenous knowledge Fhumulani M.

Mulaudzi,Rachel T. Lebesse,2022 The aim of the book is to assist both local and international scholars in articulating the scholarly discourse on indigenous health attitudes practices and experiences The indigenous lens that was used to generate and disseminate indigenous knowledge in this book will strengthen indigenous scholarship thus making it accessible to a wider audience In addition the information shared in this book will add value for scholars and assist them with the indigenous knowledge needed to address sustainable development goals This book is timeous and topical as the discourse on the decolonisation of the curriculum is widely debated in the higher education space The discourse on the scholarship of indigenous knowledge as the tacit local knowledge that stems from cultural practices within communities has not been well articulated in the current health science education milieu Indigenous knowledge has remained overlooked and undermined for a very long time and the information remains untapped in local communities The scholars who conducted the research on which this book is based unearthed a wealth of knowledge which was tacit in nature and translated it into implicit knowledge that can be documented and shared with other scholars globally This knowledge will assist health care scholars in benefiting from knowledge practices and cultural beliefs that will assist them in health care planning teaching evidence based practice and further research Venda Development Information ,1986 The Worldmark Encyclopedia of the Nations James

The Fires Beneath Seán Morrow,2016-06-01 The life of Monica Wilson is a story of groundbreaking scholarship passionate creativity and personal tragedy during South Africa s bitter and divided twentieth century As a young anthropologist in the 1930s Monica immersed herself in the lives work and beliefs of African communities in southern and

East Africa while carefully observing the effects of historical change At the core of her existence was her intellectual collaboration and intense personal relationship with her husband the brilliant but clinically depressive Godfrey Wilson who took his own life in 1944 After Godfrey s death Monica raised their two children and built a career as a leading academic at Fort Hare Rhodes University College and the University of Cape Town In a political environment where black academics were under constant threat and ideas were censored she outspokenly advocated racial equality and freedom of speech her publications emphasising a common South African identity and implicitly challenging apartheid separate development This fascinating biography moves between the Eastern Cape Cambridge Tanganyika Nyasaland Northern Rhodesia and Cape Town It explores the relationship between anthropology and history and the tensions between liberalism Christianity Marxism and apartheid ideology Drawing on the letters and diaries left by Monica and Godfrey Wilson this is a powerful story about politics race war faith love and loss

Inclusive Education in South African Further and Higher Education

Tsediso Michael Makoelle, Cina P. South Africa South African Institute of Race Relations, 1984 African Writers and Their Readers Bernth Lindfors, 2002

Like its companion volume African Writers and Their Readers is a magnificent and monumental tribute to Bernth Lindfors the scholar who transformed African literary studies in North America The quality of scholarship that has gone into these essays and their range of cultural and historical reference is perhaps one of the most vocal testaments to the significance of the Lindfors factor in African literary scholarship Simon Gikandi Professor of English Language and Literature at the University of Michigan Black Tertiary Education, 1987, 1988 Year of Fire, Year of Ash Baruch Hirson, 2016-06-15 We can say without fear of being contradicted by history that June 16 1976 heralded the beginning of the end of the centuries old white rule in this country Nelson Mandela Originally banned on publication by the apartheid government Year of Fire Year of Ash is an eye opening account of how in June 1976 20 000 school students faced down the tanks and guns of a vicious racist regime in a revolt that galvanized the black working class and became a pivotal turning point for the anti apartheid movement More than this the book overturns much of the conventional logic that served to explain the event at the time showing it was not simply a student protest but part of a wider uprising Released in this new edition to mark the fortieth anniversary Year of Fire Year of Ash provides an unparalleled insight into the origins and events of the uprising from its antecedents in the 1920s to its role in inspiring global solidarity against apartheid As South Africa experiences a new wave of popular discontent and as new forms of black consciousness come to the fore in movements around the world Baruch Hirson s book provides a timely reminder of the Soweto revolt s continued significance to struggles against oppression today
