VYAS, YOGESH L. PATEL, 2015-09-17 English Language Teaching ELT especially English as a Second Language ESL and English as a Foreign Language EFL has been witnessing unprecedented changes in curriculum teaching methodology and the application of learning theories. This has created a demand for teachers who can teach English to learners of varied cultural, socio-economic and psychological backgrounds. The book in its second edition continues to discuss the modern trends, innovations as well as the difficulties and challenges in teaching and learning ESL in a non-native context. The book with contributions from many experts, each one specializing in a particular field from countries such as UK, USA, Australia, New Zealand, India, Nigeria, Sri Lanka, China, and Japan, provides new methods, strategies, and application-oriented solutions to overcome the problems in a practical way. The book deals with all topics pertinent to English as a Second Language or English for the non-native speakers, and these are further reinforced by a large number of examples and quotations from different sources. The new edition comes along with thoroughly improvised chapters on Narrative Inquiry for Teacher Development (Chapter 13) and Mass Media Language Attitudes and Language Interaction Phenomena (Chapter 23) to provide an insight on the innovative approaches in Teacher training and in classrooms, and new approaches and changing language dimensions in the world of media and in general. What distinguishes the text is its focus on modern innovations and use of technology in ELT, CLT, Communicative Language Teaching, Postgraduate Students of English, teachers, teacher trainees, B Ed, M A Education, M Ed, and teacher educators who are concerned with teaching English as a Second Language. ESL should find this book immensely helpful.

Multiagent Systems, second edition Gerhard Weiss, 2016-10-28. The new edition of an introduction to multiagent systems that captures the state of the art in both theory and practice, suitable as textbook or reference. Multiagent systems are made up of multiple interacting intelligent agents, computational entities to some degree autonomous and able to cooperate, compete, communicate, act flexibly, and exercise control over their behavior within the frame of their objectives. They are the enabling technology for a wide range of advanced applications relying on distributed and parallel processing of data, information, and knowledge relevant in domains ranging from industrial manufacturing to e-commerce to health care. This book offers a state-of-the-art introduction to multiagent systems, covering the field in both breadth and depth, and treating both theory and practice. It is suitable for classroom use or independent study. This second edition has been completely revised, capturing the tremendous developments in multiagent systems since the first edition appeared in 1999. Sixteen of the book's seventeen chapters were written for this edition; all chapters are by leaders in the field, with each author contributing to the broad base of knowledge and experience on which the book rests. The book covers basic concepts of computational agency from the perspective of both individual agents and agent organizations; communication among agents; coordination among agents; distributed cognition; development and engineering of multiagent systems; and background knowledge in logics and game theory. Each chapter includes references, many illustrations, and examples and exercises of varying degrees of difficulty. The chapters and the overall book are designed to be self-contained and understandable without additional material. Supplemental resources are available on the book's Web site. Contributors: Rafael Bordini, Felix Brandt.

Geolinguistics: 2nd Edition Hikaru Kitabayashi, 2015 Multilingual Perspectives in Geolinguistics 2nd Edition is a publication of the American Society of Geolinguistics created with the active participation of its Japanese membership. The 2nd edition is a significantly expanded version with new chapters contributed by special request of the editorial staff. The editors in chief are Professor Wayne Finke of Baruch College City University of New York and Professor Hikaru Kitabayashi of Daito Bunka University. The object was to offer potential readers a more complete introduction to current literature dealing with geolinguistic themes than was the case with the first edition, with Geolinguistics being defined as the study of languages and varieties of language in contact and or conflict. This 2nd edition also contains many small corrections to the original text and it is to be hoped that it will offer a more satisfying experience than was possible with the first edition which due to its historical interest is being kept in print for the time being.
