Sandf Nursing Programme:

The Pocket Guide for HIV and AIDS Nursing Care Ansie Minnaar, Candice Bodkin, 2006 Offering practical solutions to the problems associated with nursing care for HIV and AIDS patients this resource is written by two highly experienced nurses from the context of both the healthcare and home environments Designed as an easily accessible quick reference guide topics include HIV and pregnancy pediatric management dealing with infections and the principles of anti retroviral therapy Additional chapters include counseling and living positively with HIV and AIDS The most recent research is presented and the interactive approach makes the task of putting theory into practice achievable Journal of the Royal Naval Medical Service ,1995 Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh, 2014-09-10 Annual Report South Africa. Department of Defence, 2016 Defense & Foreign Affairs Handbook ,1999 Salut ,1994 Surviving on the Move Jonathan Crush, Bruce Frayne, 2010-02-01 Since the collapse of apartheid there have been major increases in migration flows within to and from the Southern African region Cross border movements are at an all time high across the region and internal migration is at record levels The implications of greater mobility for areas of origin and destination have not been systematically explored Migration is most often seen as a negative phenomenon a result of increased poverty and the failure of development More recently the positive relationship between migration and development has been emphasised by agencies such as the Global Commission on International Migration the Global Forum on Migration and Development the United Nations Development Programme and the African Union The chapters in this publication are all based on primary research and examine various facets of the relationship between migration poverty and development including issues that are often ignored in the migration development debate like migration and food security and migration and vulnerability to HIV The book argues that the development and poverty reduction potential of migration is being hindered by national policies that fail to recognise and build on the positive aspects and potential of migration As a result as these studies show migrants are often pushed to the margins where they are forced to survive on the move Their treatment violates labour laws and basic human rights and compromises the potential of migration as a means to create sustainable livelihoods reduce poverty and food insecurity mitigate the brain drain and promote the productive use of remittances This book shows that migrant lives and livelihoods should be at the centre of international and African debates about migration poverty and development Current Index to Journals in Education ,1999-10 South Africa Yearbook ,2006 HIV/AIDS and the Law ,1997 African Acronyms and Abbreviations David E. Hall, 2015-12-17 This is a directory of approximately 13 000 acronyms and abbreviations relating to Africa including names of societies institutions associations movements government departments agencies ministries committees trade unions and commercial companies from the 19th century onwards which have been gathered from scholarly monographs and journal articles The acronyms and abbreviations are international in scope with many cross references Public Service Labour Relations in a Democratic South Africa Glenn Adler, 2000 The democratic South Africa boasts some of the most advanced labour legislation in the world allowing public service workers to enjoy trade union and collective bargaining rights for the first time in the country's history. These developments set the stage for public servants to bring their conditions of service into line with the industrial relations best practice in the private sector. The chapters in this volume are based on critical assessments of contemporary developments in the public service drawn from original research by a range of contributors including public servants, academics and independent researchers, all specialists in this field. The problem of addressing workers' demands and concerns about job security, transforming the state into a more effective agent of development and redressing the legacies of discrimination and authoritarianism is likely to generate considerable conflict between workers and managers and between different groups of workers, made international headlines in August 1999 demonstrated that labour management strife in the public service is not a narrow industrial relations issue of interest to the parties alone. The outcomes of these conflicts will have crucial and long-lasting consequences for the transformation of the state as an institution and therefore for the government's ability to promote fiscal integrity, economic development and service delivery. The contributions thus combine depth of research and critical appraisal with privileged insight into recent policy developments.

Social work in the 21st century (Prof.) Mogomme A. Masoga, Allucia L. Shokane, Annaline Keet, Varoshini Nadesan, 2024-12-30 This scholarly book, Social work in the 21st century: Scholarship and praxis reimagined towards vulnerability, is the third volume in the Knowledge Pathing Multi-Inter and Trans-Disciplining in Social Sciences book series. Chapters were invited from contributing authors who are involved in social work practice and education and who are dealing with the issues of poverty, inequality and vulnerability in these fields. The focus of the book emanates from the main conference theme and sub-themes of the ASASWEI Association of South African Social Work Education Institutions conference held in 2021. The theme of the conference, 'Pandemics, poverty, inequality and disability: Social work in the 21st century', provided an opportunity for deep deliberation, knowledge exchange and skills development on how vulnerable communities already on the economic margins of society due to poverty and inequality are further marginalised during significant societal disruptions such as the coronavirus 2019 COVID-19 pandemic. It is these deliberations which culminated in this book. Drawing on the papers presented, the chapters promote knowledge and skills around vulnerabilities in our social context and how the social work profession is challenged to interrogate its role in addressing the persistent challenges of poverty and inequality that keep people on the peripheries of human development. The target audience for this book is primarily academics engaged in the
