How come Africa is so underdeveloped when it is one of the richest continents on earth Indeed Africa is a paradox it is poor and rich at the same time Resource wise Africa is among the top richest continents in the world yet development wise it is the poorest of all continents This paradox desperately needs comprehensive theoretical unpacking and rethinking if Africa is to achieve breakthroughs to the multifaceted development related problems that have haunted it since the beginning of its unequal encounters with Europe Regrettably current Eurocentric development theories fall short on several fronts The need for a comprehensive body of knowledge theories and models from the perspective of Africans persists in urgency The present volume is an attempt to theorise Africa's under development with a view to provide a sustainable enduring framework of operations that will arrest the elusive predicament of the continent while taking it forward from its current position of passivity It rethinks and reimagines a number of externally imposed problematic mechanisms used unconsciously in Africa with the intention to raise awareness and foster critical thinking in scholars and scholarship on African development With its predicament oriented theorising the book is a pacesetter on how to think and research Africa's under development It is also an invaluable asset for social scientists policy makers development practitioners civil society activists and politicians Macroeconomic Developments and Prospects in Low-Income Developing Countries - 2016 International Monetary Fund. Strategy, Policy, & Review Department, International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs Dept., International Monetary Fund. Monetary and Capital Markets Department, International Monetary Fund. Asia and Pacific Dept, 2016-11-23 This paper is the third in a series assessing macroeconomic developments and prospects in low income developing countries LIDCs The first of these papers IMF 2014a examined trends during 2000-2014 a period of sustained strong growth across most LIDCs The second paper IMF 2015a focused on the impact of the drop in global commodity prices since mid 2014 on LIDCs a story with losers countries dependent on commodity exports notably fuel and winners countries with a more diverse export base where growth remained robust The overarching theme in this paper's assessment of the macroeconomic conjuncture among LIDCs is that of incomplete adjustment to the new world of lower for long commodity prices with many commodity exporters still far from a sustainable macroeconomic trajectory Chapter 1 The analysis of risks and vulnerabilities focuses on financial sector stresses and medium term fiscal risks pointing to the actions including capacity building needed to manage and contain these challenges over time Chapter 2 With 2016 the first year of the march towards the 2030 development goals the paper also looks at how infrastructure investment can be accelerated in LIDCs given that weaknesses in public infrastructure such as energy transportation systems in LIDCs are widely seen as a key constraint on medium term growth potential Chapter 3 With the sharp adjustment in commodity prices now into its third year some of the key messages of the paper are familiar a many commodity exporters notably fuel producers remain under significant economic stress with sluggish growth large fiscal imbalances and weakened foreign reserve positions b countries with a more diversified export base are generally doing well although several have been hit by declines in remittances conflict natural disasters and the contractionary impact of macroeconomic stabilization programs c widening fiscal imbalances in both commodity and diversified exporters have resulted in rising debt levels with severe financing stress emerging in some cases and d financial sector stresses have emerged in many LIDCs with expectations that these strains will increase in many commodity exporters over the next 12 18 months Key messages on financial sector oversight on medium term fiscal risks and on tackling infrastructure gaps are flagged below Read Executive Summary in Arabic Chinese French Spanish
