Vastu Architecture Michael Borden, 2011-09-16 This book about the science of Vastu was written as a simple and clear yet detailed exposition on the knowledge and basic technical applications for the design of secular Vastu buildings such as homes and offices Vastu Architecture provides the reader with a nuts and bolts explanation of how to create a solid structure that is in resonance with Earth Cosmic and Divine energies Being a fully illustrated book with around 100 simple clear and easy to interpret drawings the book is very accessible to a general audience and does not require any background knowledge in architectural design Also included are two complete floor plans that can be tailored for specific individuals in accordance with their birth stars Many other books about Vastu do not include an explanation of the technical knowledge of Vastu science and if they do they often present only a partial or an altogether incorrect account thereof This is not the case with Vastu Architecture as its technically rich yet layman accessible knowledge base provides the reader with all of the basic requirements to create a Vastu structure including a very clear chapter on how to use the Ayadi Calculations to get the Sacred Dimensions of a building This is not however a coffee table book it is rather a manual for the construction of special havens for the soul Also see the supplemental book in this series Vastu Architecture Project Plans and Illustrations Vol 1 by the same author

Domestic Mandala John Gray, 2017-03-02 A rich and fascinating ethnography of domestic architecture and activities among the high caste Chhetris of Kholagaun in Nepal this book focuses on the spatial organization everyday activities and ritual performances that generate and display Chhetri houses as mandalas sacred diagrams that are both maps of the cosmos and machines for revelation Describing the orientation and layout of the Chhetri house and surrounding compound it shows how the orientation and distribution of everyday social activities with the domestic mandala shape people s experience of the enigmas of their lifeworld as householders and analyses the double significance of rituals that take place in the domestic mandala. By treating the Nepali house as more than just the background of people's everyday life, the author reveals the Chhetri everyday lifeworld as a revelation of Hindu tantric cosmology, its enigmatic illusion and the path to liberation from it. The themes addressed in the book make a unique contribution to the fields of anthropology, architecture and human geography. The Living Elements of Healthy Building Design Janus Welton Aia Bbei Architect, 2007-06-14. Based on 15 years of wide ranging study, THE LIVING ELEMENTS OF HEALTHY BUILDING DESIGN is the first in a series of guidebooks that accompany workshops of the same name to educate and clarify the impact of current building practices and materials on the indoor environment and human health in a form accessible to laypersons and professionals alike, from homeowner to non-technical designer. To simplify and substantiate this wealth of information, the author organizes the material through the lens of the Living Elements: Earth, Metal, Water, Wood, Air, and Fire, emphasizing the interrelationship between human life, the earth, and the cosmos. This reference and its companion volumes, soon to be published, supports the concept of Conscious Architecture, an innovative and integrated model of architecture and design that inspires harmonious structures where natural elements purposefully intermingle with form, color, light, and sound to create holistic and healthy buildings that contain and reflect the wholeness of nature and its expression in the human spirit.

Religion, Heritage and the Sustainable City Yamini Narayanan, 2014-10-10. The speed and scale of urbanisation in India is unprecedented almost anywhere in the world and has tremendous global implications. The religious influence on the urban experience has resonances for all aspects of urban sustainability in India, and yet it remains a blind spot while articulating sustainable urban policy. This book explores the historical and on-going influence of religion on urban planning, design, space utilisation, urban identities, and communities. It argues that the conceptual and empirical approaches to planning sustainable cities in India need to be developed out of analytical concepts that define local sense of place and identity. Examining how Hindu religious heritage, beliefs, and religiously influenced planning practices have impacted on sustainable urbanisation development in Jaipur and Indian cities in general, the book identifies the challenges and opportunities that ritualistic and belief resources pose for sustainability. It focuses on three key aspects: spatial segregation and ghettoisation, gender inclusive urban development, and the nexus between religion, nature, and urban development This cutting edge book is one of the first case studies linking Hindu religion heritage urban development women and the environment in a way that responds to the realities of Indian cities It opens up discussion on the nexus of religion and development drawing out insightful policy implications for the sustainable urban planning of many cities in India and elsewhere in South Asia and the developing world

Home Alison Blunt, Robyn Dowling, 2022-05-30 Home articulates a critical geography of home in which home is understood as an emotive place and spatial imaginary that encompasses lived experiences of everyday domestic life alongside a wider and often contested sense of being and belonging in the world Engaging with the burgeoning cross disciplinary interest in home since the first edition was published this significantly revised and updated second edition contains new research boxes illustrations and contemporary examples throughout It also adds a new chapter on Home and the City that extends the scalar understanding of home to the urban The book develops the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of a critical geography of home drawing on key feminist postcolonial and housing thinkers as well as contemporary methodological currents in non representational thinking and performance The book s chapters consider the making and unmaking of home across the domestic scale house as home the urban city as home national nation as home and homemaking in relation to transnational migration and diaspora Each chapter includes illustrative examples from diverse geographical contexts and historical time periods Chapters also address some of the key cross cutting dimensions of home across these scales including digital connectivity art and performance more than human constructions of home and violence and dispossession The book ends with a research agenda for home in a world of COVID 19 The book provides an understanding of home that has three intersecting dimensions that material and imaginative geographies of home are closely intertwined that home power and identity are intimately linked and that geographies of home are multi scalar This framework the examples used to illustrate it and the intended audience of academics and students across the humanities and social sciences will together shape the field of home studies into the future
