Introduction to Teaching Gene E. Hall, Linda F. Quinn, Donna M. Gollnick, 2019-01-02 An ideal introductory text for aspiring teachers Introduction to Teaching Making a Difference in Student Learning is grounded in the realities and complexities found in today's schools Acclaimed authors Gene E Hall Linda F Quinn and Donna M Gollnick thoroughly prepare students to make a difference as teachers presenting firsthand stories and evidence based practices while offering a student centered approach to learning The authors focus on how to address one of the biggest challenges facing many of today's schools ensuring that all students are learning and help teachers prioritize student learning as their primary focus From true to life challenges that future teachers will face such as high stakes testing reduced funding low retention and Common Core State Standards to the inspiration and joy they will experience throughout their teaching careers the Third Edition paints an importantly authentic picture of the real life of a teacher This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package

An Architectural Approach to Instructional Design Andrew S. Gibbons, 2013-10-30 Winner of the 2014 AECT Design Development Outstanding Book Award An Architectural Approach to Instructional Design is organized around a groundbreaking new way of conceptualizing instructional design practice Both practical and theoretically sound this approach is drawn from current international trends in architectural digital and industrial design and focuses on the structural and functional properties of the artifact being designed rather than the processes used to design it Harmonious with existing systematic design models the architectural approach expands the scope of design discourse by introducing new depth into the conversation and merging current knowledge with proven systematic techniques An architectural approach is the natural result of increasing technological complexity and escalating user expectations As the complexity of design problems increases specialties evolve their own design languages theories processes tools literature organizations and standards An Architectural Approach to Instructional Design describes the implications for theory and practice providing a powerful and commercially relevant introduction for all students of instructional design

Balancing Life and Education While Being a Part of a Military Family Jillian Ventrone, Paul Karczewski, Robert W. Blue Jr., 2017-02-15 Military spouse education is an often overlooked topic With the proliferation of service member programs and benefits and the spotlight on them it is not uncommon for spouses to neglect looking into their own educational opportunities and benefits The hectic life of a military family also often complicates the process of attending an institution of higher education for spouses There are numerous programs and benefits that a spouse may have access to but they are difficult to find and navigate properly Balancing Life and Education While Being a Part of a Military Family A Guide to Navigating Higher Education for the Military Spouse attempts to highlight these possibilities and inform and assure this population that attaining an education is possible regardless of location or current circumstances Numerous programs and benefits are described as well as the best way to go about using them Detailed instructions are illustrated to make the process of obtaining an education easier and to give spouses more confidence in pursuing their own education In addition the specific considerations of military family life are addressed along with these instructions Education is really important and a lot of times military spouses aren't aware of the opportunities and resources available to them to pursue it The authors of From the Navy to College Transitioning from the Service to Higher Education and From the Army to College Transitioning from the Service to Higher Education have put together a clear guidebook will make the process easy accessible and understandable They offer clear advice and information about resources available to spouses of service members creating a go to guide for pursuing higher education Mayo
