28 Paradises Patrick Modiano,Dominique Zehrfuss,2019-05-21 Published in English for the first time 28 Paradises is the marriage of prose and painting by Nobel prize winning author Patrick Modiano and his partner the illustrator Dominique Zehrfuss 28 Paradises is a rare book it reveals not only the individual talents of the authors Modiano and Zehrfuss but also the depth of the couple s creative union Sensitively translated into English for the first time by Damion Searls 28 Paradises captures the exquisite sadness of waking from a beautiful dream There are twenty eight dreams in this book or perhaps one dream in twenty eight parts visions of paradise imagined by Zehrfuss during a time of deep sadness Captured first in Zehrfuss s brightly colored gouaches each paradise was then refashioned as a poem by Modiano Zehrfuss s paintings are Edens in miniature and rather than describe them outright Modiano dreams himself into these reveries in quiet understated verse The reader enters this shared realm in an experience less like paging through a book and more like slipping into a shared world These paradises are wishes for moments when a painting or a poem or a lover perhaps they are not so different relieves the loneliness of being human As Modiano writes with a touch of wistfulness The Lilliputian painted her paradises And I Next to her Wrote a poem A pure example of ekphrastic writing poetry inspired by paintings this book shows how writing and visual art can together create a unique emotional experience First published by Editions de l Olivier Le Seuil in 2005 , Poèmes et légendes Heinrich Heine,1861 Oeuvres complètes de Henri Heine Heinrich Heine,1865

Finding List of English and French Prose Fiction Detroit Public Library,1905 Redefining Resistance Esther

Rowlands,2021-10-18 The study of resistance developed here by Dr Esther Rowlands consists of a fresh interrogation of the notion of resistance discourse Here for the first time this detailed study of selected wartime texts produced by Francis Ponge Benjamin P ret Henri Michaux and Antonin Artaud compiled between 1936 and 1946 presents a specific critique of resistance which investigates the possibility for opposition and subversion to take place without direct allusion to the object of resistance This investigation questions the criteria according to which literature is perceived as being resistant and suggests that historical and political referentiality may be deemed retaliative and reactionary thereby risking replication of the dominant order The relationship between language and power structures is elucidated through allusion to modern theorists Michel de Certeau Michel Foucault Ross Chambers and Fran oise Proust The necessary framework for a study of the poetic voice draws upon aspects of the post structuralist work of Jacques Derrida and Giles Deleuze incorporating specific theories expounded by the Surrealist leader Andr Breton The works of the above theorists are foundational to this new critique of poetic discourse which when applied by Dr Esther Rowlands to the wartime works of the four named writers suggests that language itself may be recognised as a locus of resistance This book is designed to be of interest both to undergraduates and to researchers studying Surrealism Second World Wartime Literature and Critical Theory Claudine à Paris Colette,1903
