Corpus Jean-Luc Nancy, 2009-08-25 How have we thought the body How can we think it anew The body of mortal creatures the body politic the body of letters and of laws the mystical body of Christ all these and others are incorporated in the word Corpus the title and topic of Jean Luc Nancy's masterwork Corpus is a work of literary force at once phenomenological sociological theological and philosophical in its multiple orientations and approaches In thirty six brief sections Nancy offers us at once an encyclopedia and a polemical program reviewing classical takes on the corpus from Plato Aristotle and Saint Paul to Descartes Hegel Husserl and Freud while demonstrating that the mutations technological biological and political of our own culture have given rise to the need for a new understanding of the body He not only tells the story of this cultural change but also explores the promise and responsibilities that such a new understanding entails The long awaited English translation is a bold bravura rendering To the title essay are added five closely related recent pieces including a commentary by Antonia Birnbaum dedicated in large part to the legacy of the mind body problem formulated by Descartes and the challenge it poses to rethinking the ancient problems of the corpus The last and most poignant of these essays is The Intruder Nancy's philosophical meditation on his heart transplant The book also serves as the opening move in Nancy's larger project called The deconstruction of Christianity

Apprendre À Vivre Gil Trigo, 2011-12 Le livre que vous vous apprêtez à lire a été critiqué en 1985 et pour toutes sortes de bonnes ou mauvaises raisons est demeuré au fond d'un tiroir jusqu'aujourd'hui Son caractère intemporel et universel est basé sur une considération générale de la spiritualité de la science et de la réflexion personnelle Aujourd'hui comme il y a 30 ans on peut remarquer que plus ça change et plus c'est pareil puisque les gens n'apprennent pas ou si peu de leurs expériences Malgré toutes les révolutions culturelles ou technologiques si nous regardons au plus profond de notre être nous remarquerons que ce que nous recherchons vraiment c'est la paix intérieure comme le disent les mystiques de tous les temps Ce petit livre vise justement vous amener sur des sentiers qui vous permettront de revenir à l'essentiel c'est-à-dire de rechercher apprendre vivre partir de l'intérieur et non de l'extérieur en gardant l'esprit que ce que vous faites en conscience s'extériorise dans votre vie au quotidien Rappelez-vous que le hasard n'existe pas et que malgré la croyance populaire nous ne savons pas ce qui est bon pour nous ou ce dont nous avons réellement besoin

Life M. Kronegger, Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 In her Introduction Tymieniecka states the core theme of the present book sharply Is culture an excess of nature's prodigious expansiveness an excess which might turn out to be dangerous for nature itself if it goes too far or is culture a natural congenial prolongation of nature life If the latter then culture is assimilated into nature and thus would lose its claim to autonomy its criteria would be superseded by those of nature alone Of course nature and culture may both still be seen as being absorbed by the inner powers of specifically human inwardness on which view human being caught in its own transcendence becomes separated radically in kind from the rest of existence and may not touch even the shadow of reality except through its own prism Excess therefore or prolongation And on what terms The relationship between culture and nature in its technical phase demands a new elucidation Here this is pursued by excavating the root significance of the multiple rationalities of life In contrast to Husserl who differentiated living types according to their degree of participation in the world the phenomenology of life disentangles living types from within the onto-poietic web of life itself The human creative act reveals itself as the Great Divide of the Logos of Life a divide that does not separate but harmonizes thus dispelling both naturalistic and spiritualistic reductionism contemporary Maghrebi female artists Majida Khattari Lalla Essaydi Zoulikha Bouabdellah D borah Benzaquen Fatima Mazmouz and Za nab Fasiki With a focus on the French Maghrebi and North American market and examining artistic mediums ranging from painting and photography to videos and installations Ramona Mielusel highlights how the body functions as both subject and object of aesthetic discourse The author denotes these artistic works as the intersection of the intimate and the impersonal of the individual perception and the communitarian and societal view without promoting a fixed notion of the body in a specific spatiality and temporality This book explores the work of female Maghrebi artists and their intentional framing of the body s duality between the symbolic and the real between cultural interpretation of the body in literature and the actual perception of the body Divination on stage Folke Gernert,2021-02-08 Magicians necromancers
