Penser Le Janvier:

Penser le Québec au quotidien David Olivier, 2025-05-21 T00:00:00-04:00 Cet essai se penche sur le parcours intellectuel de Gérard Bergeron 1922-2002 l'un des pères de la science politique québécoise et parvient à jeter un éclairage singulier sur la présence de l'intellectuel dans la société québécoise durant la seconde moitié du XX<sup>e</sup> siècle et sur son rôle dans le débat public

Religion and Politics: New Developments Worldwide Roy C. Amore, 2019-09-17 Religion and Politics New Developments Worldwide features ten articles about recent developments in the interaction of Religion and Politics in various countries of Asia Africa Europe and both North and South America Most articles focus on one country and including China South Korea India Nigeria Malaysia France and Cuba Others address issues across regions such as Latin America Southeast Asia or the Middle East The fifteen contributors are scholars from diverse disciplines as well as diverse regions of Asia Europe Africa and the Americas Subjects include the Indian government's favoritism for Hinduism over rival religions the way the Sikhs of India avoid the religion politics divide the way the Western media fails to fully understand the Chinese government's policies on religious minorities the aftermath of the Charlie Hebdo demonstrations in France religious attitudes toward tax politics in South Korea as well as among Christians compared to Muslims how to lessen the radicalization of Muslims in Southeast Asia whether Nigeria should encourage its Muslims to be active in the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation the spiritual role played by the permaculture movement in Cuba and how the former tendency of scholars to polarize religion and politics is no longer viable especially in Latin America

France since 1870 Charles Sowerwine, 2018-01-25 This thoroughly revised updated and expanded new edition of an established text surveys the cultural social and political history of France from the Franco-Prussian War of 1870 and the Paris Commune through to Emmanuel Macron's presidency Incorporating the newest interpretations of past events Sowerwine seamlessly integrates culture gender and race into political and social history This edition features extended coverage of the 2007-8 financial crisis the rise of the political and cultural far right and the issues of colonialism and its contemporary repercussions This is an essential resource for undergraduate and taught postgraduate students of history French studies or European studies taking courses on modern French history or European history This text will also appeal to scholars and readers with an interest in modern French history Richly informative and lucidly presented Sowerwine's France since 1870 offers essential reading for students and researchers Particularly powerful is the new final chapter which draws on historical expertise to explore and explain the literary and political malaise of contemporary France Jessica Wardhaugh University of Warwick UK This third edition is unparalleled in its reach and excellence as a history of modern France from 1870 to the present Sowerwine seamlessly integrates culture gender and race into political and social history His incorporation of the newest interpretations of past events as well as the historical perspective he lends to current events such as terror attacks new laws regarding labor and marriage modern globalization neo-liberalism as well as to France's darkening mood make this highly readable book a true masterpiece Elinor Accampo

University of Southern California USA Her recent social and economic challenges have cast deep shadows into the story of modern France that Charles Sowerwine tells so clearly Those dark questions about culture politics and society have their full place in this This scholarly but accessible reassessment of French history since 1870 This edition raises new questions about France s story directly and compellingly and remains the key text for readers who are curious about modern France Julian Wright Northumbria University UK Following on the fine precedent set by earlier editions this masterful survey offers students and the public alike a readable and illuminating account of the tortuous and ever intriguing path of French history since 1870 George Sheridan University of Oregon USA

Bulletins Et Mémoires de la Société Médicale Des Hôpitaux de Paris ,1900 International Communities of Invention and Innovation Arthur Tatnall,Christopher Leslie,2016-11-30 This book contains revised selected papers presented at the IFIP WG 9.7 International Conference on the History of Computing HC 2016 held in Brooklyn NY USA in May 2016 The 13 full papers included in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from numerous submissions The papers cover a wide range of topics related to the history of computing and focus on the history of pre existing relationships and communities that led to triumphs and dead ends in the history of computing This broad perspective helps to tell a more accurate story of important developments like the Internet and provide a better understanding of how to sponsor future invention and innovation They reflect on histories that foreground the international community along four broad themes invention policy infrastructure and social history After Charlie Hebdo Gavan Titley,Des Freedman,Gholam Khiabany,Aurélien Mondon,2017-11-15 As the world looked on in horror at the Paris terror attacks of January and November 2015 France found itself at the centre of a war that has split across nations and continents The attacks set in motion a steady creep towards ever more repressive state surveillance and have fuelled the resurgence of the far right across Europe and beyond while leaving the left dangerously divided These developments raise profound questions about a number of issues central to contemporary debates including the nature of national identity the limits to freedom of speech and the role of both traditional and social media After Charlie Hebdo brings together an international range of scholars to assess the social and political impact of the Paris attacks in Europe and beyond Cutting through the hysteria that has characterised so much of the initial commentary it seeks to place these events in their wider global context untangling the complex symbolic web woven around Charlie Hebdo to pose the fundamental question how best to combat racism in our supposedly post racial age African Philosophy for the Twenty-First Century Jean Godefroy Bidima,Laura Hengehold,2021-11-26 In Africa the twenty first century began with new challenges surrounding and regarding philosophical discourses Questions of economic and political liberation the displacement of populations and the process of urbanization present ongoing challenges linked to problems such as endemic diseases and famine the restructure of the traditional family gender and the position of women the transmission of culture from past to future generations Changes in labor relations resulting from introduction of financial speculation cutting edge technologies and differential access to digital and older cultural forms have placed real demands on Africans and Africanists working in philosophy This volume explores the ways in which African philosophies express transitional acts those acts by which thought interacts with history as it is being made and by which it assures its own renewal in proposing provisional solutions to historical problems A transitional act combines both the audacity of confrontation and the novelty of creation prudence in the face of risks and anticipation in the face of the unexpected Influential and emerging thinkers from both sides of the Atlantic consider this dual activity in the realm of criticism and imagination public spaces in Africa and the relationship between historical politics and historical poetics Host Bibliographic Record for Boundwith Item Barcode 30112124395697 and Others,1893
