Conflict and Compromise Raymond B. Blake,Jeffrey Keshen,Norman J. Knowles,Barbara J. Messamore,2017-05-18 Driven by its strong narrative Conflict and Compromise presents Canadian history chronologically allowing a better understanding of the interrelationships between events Its main objective is to demonstrate that although Canadian history has been marked by cleavages and conflicts there has been a continual process of negotiation and a need for compromise which has enabled Canada to develop into arguably one of the most successful and pluralistic countries in the world The authors have drawn from all genres characterizing the present state of Canadian historiography including social military cultural political and economic approaches In doing so their aim is to challenge readers to engage with debates and interpretations about the past rather than simply to study for an exam The second volume begins with the nation building project that got underway in 1864 and ends in the present The book is illustrated with over 60 images maps and figures all designed to support its mission to provide intellectual curiosity

Contemporary Southern Men Fiction Writers Rosemary M. Canfield Reisman,Suzanne Booker-Canfield,1998 This carefully annotated bibliography lists sources of criticism for thirty nine Southern male authors

each of whom has published at least one significant book of fiction between 1970 and 1994      Empirical Legal Analysis Yun-chien Chang,2013-12-17 This innovative volume explores empirical legal issues around the world While legal studies have traditionally been worked on and of letters and with a normative bent in recent years quantitative methods have gained traction by offering a brand new perspective of understanding law That is legal scholars have started to crunch numbers not letters to tease out the effects of law on the regulated industries citizens or judges in reality In this edited book authors from leading institutions in the U S Europe and Asia investigate legal issues in South Africa Argentina the U S Israel Taiwan and other countries Using original data in a variety of statistical tools from the most basic chi square analysis to sophisticated two stage least square regression models contributors to this book look into the judicial behaviours in Taiwan and Israel the determinants of constitutional judicial systems in 100 countries and the effect of appellate court decisions on media competition In addition this book breaks new ground in informing important policy debates Specifically how long should we incarcerate criminals Should the medical malpractice liability system be reformed Do police reduce crime Why is South Africa s democratic transition viable With solid data as evidence this volume sheds new light on these issues from a road more and more frequently taken what is known as empirical legal studies analysis This book should be useful to students practitioners and professors of law economics and public policy in many countries who seek to understand their legal system from a different and arguably more scientific perspective      Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States.
