Global Heritage Industry Alia Yunis, Robert Parthesius, Niccolò Acram Cappelletto, 2024-09-09 Future Stories in the Global Heritage Industry explores what happens to the heritage and memory of communities that find themselves in contact with the rest of the world when they become UNESCO World Heritage Sites Written by an interdisciplinary group of emerging scholars and heritage professionals connected to these sites through their own heritage this volume considers how a community can engage with a site's globalized importance while retaining its own sense of history Drawing on oral histories ethnographic methods film interviews and archival research the book adds to the discourse around Critical Heritage Studies It does so by putting theories into practice in selected heritage sites in Romania the UAE India Eritrea China Mozambique Tanzania and Malaysia The book also contributes toward the dismantlement of the many dichotomies imposed on heritage from the divisions between natural and cultural or tangible and intangible in the UNESCO Conventions and Eurocentric heritage practices Looking toward the future of the past the volume asks whether heritage can be objectively or equitably managed as it increasingly comes into conflict with issues around nation building climate change social class ethnicity religion and gender Future Stories in the Global Heritage Industry will be of great interest to academics and students engaged in the study of heritage sociology public history history international studies sociology and anthropology

Southeast Asian Personalities of Chinese Descent Leo Suryadinata, 2012 This is a bold project recording the lives of a particular group of Southeast Asians Most of the people whose biographies are included here have settled down in the ten countries that constitute the region Each of them has either self-identified as Chinese or is comfortable to be known as someone of Chinese ancestry There are also those who were born in China or elsewhere who came here to work and do business including seeking help from others who have ethnic Chinese connections With the political and economic conditions of the region in a great state of flux for the past two centuries it is impossible to find consistency in the naming process Confucius had stressed that correct names make for the best relationships In this case Professor Leo Suryadinata has been pursuing for decades the elusive goal of finding the right name to give to the large numbers of people who have in one way or another made their homes in or made some difference to Southeast Asia I believe that when he and his colleagues selected the biographies to be included here they have taken a big step towards the rectification of identities for many leading personalities In so doing he has done us all a great service Professor Wang Gungwu National University of Singapore The Rough Guide to Southeast Asia On A Budget ,2012-10-11 The Rough Guide to Southeast Asia on a Budget is the ultimate guide for budget conscious independent travellers visiting this fascinating region Updated by young enthusiastic writers the guide has detailed practical information that will help readers make the most of their time and money whether it s taking a slow boat down the Mekong or catching the Jungle Railway through Malaysia s interior Our extensive coverage includes all of the most popular Southeast Asian destinations alongside less discovered places with information on getting off the beaten track whether to hike through the rainforest visit remote hill tribes or just find a quiet stretch of white sand The itineraries provide a great starting point for travellers to the region while the Ideas section focuses on some of the region s many highlights illustrated by beautiful photographs Make the most of your time with The Rough Guide to Southeast Asia on a Budget Now available in ePub format No Miracle Mitchell Wigdor,2016-05-23 No Miracle examines the role of institutions in bridging the digital divide between rich and poor nations and what that means for the country s integration into a global economy Shifting the debate from whether institutions are important to economic development to which institutions are important and how to build them Mitchell Wigdor expertly addresses fundamental shortcomings in the existing development literature by identifying specific institutions that mediate the relationship between Information and Communications Technology ICT and economic growth In doing so he challenges those concerned with development to shift their gaze from whether institutions are important to economic development to which institutions might be the focus of government efforts and how to build them Detailed case studies of the economic development strategies of Singapore and Malaysia from 1960 demonstrate that institution building and economic development may be as much about process as the specific policies governments pursue Written in accessible non technical language this book should be read by everyone concerned with economic growth both in less economically developed countries and the more prosperous including those in government international organizations NGOs universities policy makers and the private sector Food and Foodways in Asia Sidney Cheung,Chee-Beng Tan,2007-06-11 Food is an important cultural marker of identity in contemporary Asian societies and can provide a medium for the understanding of social relations family and kinship class and consumption gender ideology and cultural symbolism However a truly comprehensive view of food cannot neglect the politics of food production in particular how when from where and even why different kinds of food are produced prepared and supplied Food and Foodways in Asia is an anthropological inquiry providing rich ethnographic description and analysis of food production as it interacts with social and political complexities in Asia s diverse cultures Prominent anthropologists examine how food is related to ethnic identity and boundary formation consumerism and global food distribution and the invention of local cuisine in the context of increasing cultural contact With chapters ranging from the invention of local food for tourism development to Asia s contribution to world cuisine Food and Foodways in Asia will be a fascinating read for anyone interested in the anthropology of food and or Asian studies Double Your Money Andrew Chia,2010-09 Here are some of the things you will learn in this brand new topic of financial education the simple secret of becoming rich what 90% of the people don t know and will never find out why the poor remain poor for all of their lives how you can tell the difference between the poor and the middle class the most important reason why people succeed and how you can use it to create your own success story understand and apply the 90 10 Rule of Success to multiply your money how you can become very rich even in an economic recession how you can avoid mistaking a liability for an asset the new and correct definition of assets and how it can put you on track to financial independence why you should avoid operating your finances on the red line as in your car speedometer Einstein s greatest mathematical discovery of all time and how you can use it to become very rich the cost of your procrastination worked out mathematically what causes the downfall of rich and powerful people and how you can avoid it how you can break the three generation curse the only way you can retire why you need two jobs how some commonly held opinions may cause you to lose all your money discover the key behind every successful investment decision what every successful investor does before putting in his money and how you can develop the same habit Malaysia Book of Records Zanariah Abd.
