Mind over Memes Diana Senechal, 2018-10-15 Too often our use of language has become lazy frivolous and even counterproductive We rely on clich s and bromides to communicate in such a way that our intentions are lost or misinterpreted In a culture of takeaways and buzzwords it requires study and cunning to keep language alive In Mind over Memes Passive Listening Toxic Talk and Other Modern Language Follies Diana Senechal examines words concepts and phrases that demand reappraisal Targeting a variety of terms the author contends that a good fit may not always be desirable delivers a takedown of the adjective toxic and argues that social justice must take its place among other justices This book also includes a critique of our modern emphasis on quick answers and immediate utility By scrutinizing words and phrases that serve contemporary fads and follies this book stands up against the excesses of language and offers engaging alternatives Drawing on literature philosophy social sciences music and technology Senechal offers a rich framework to make fresh connections between topics Combining sharp criticism lyricism and wit Mind over Memes argues for judicious and imaginative speech J.M.G. Le Clézio Keith Moser, 2013 This monograph represents the first comprehensive study of the multifaceted representations of the complex phenomenon of globalization in the diverse repertoire of the 2008 Nobel Laureate in Literature This interdisciplinary investigation explores the initial euphoria related to the ambivalent concept of the global village and how this evaporated dream can perhaps be reappropriated to create a better global society for both the human and Cosmic Other through the lens of Le Clézio's fiction Chapter one offers a conceptual framework for understanding the Franco Mauritian author's nuanced ideas concerning globalization It also probes the original ambivalence of McLuhan's celebrated notion of a global village in addition to its euphoric reception Chapter two explores the current state of the interconnected interdependent modern world in which many disenfranchised and marginalized individuals are living a recurring nightmare Chapter three examines Le Clézio's deconstruction of the simplistic ideology of consumerism that is indicative of contemporary consumer republics This section also underscores the intricate systems of hegemonic domination such as the media created by the transnational corporations that dominate the global economic landscape to sustain their supremacy Chapter four delves into Le Clézio's ecocentric humanism that extends to all other living creatures by debunking Manichean dualities that separate human beings from elemental matter and the rest of the universe The final chapter examines recent texts such as Raga Ourania and Histoire du pied et autres fantaisies which encourage the reader to envision what a more just and egalitarian global village might encompass These works dismiss neoliberal fantasies and consumerist ideology that have justified the systematic exploitation of everyone and everything in the name of progress but they also urge the modern subject to be resilient in the face of tremendous adversity Instead of accepting the imposition of a monolithic socioeconomic model that is riddled with inequality and injustice and which serves the interests of the Happy Few Le Clézio suggests that the first step is to resist integration into the global village by stoically confronting reality and having the necessary courage to propose another vision which counterpoints McLuhan's misguided one Latour and the Humanities Rita Felski, Stephen Muecke, 2020-09-01 How does the work of influential theorist Bruno Latour offer a fresh angle on the practices and purposes of the humanities In recent years defenses of the humanities have tended to argue along predictable lines the humanities foster empathy the humanities encourage critical thinking the humanities offer a counterweight to the cold calculations of the natural and social sciences The essays in Latour and the Humanities take a different approach Exploring the relevance of theorist Bruno Latour's work they argue for attachments and entanglements between the humanities and the sciences while looking closely at the interests institutions and intellectual projects that shape the humanities within and beyond the university The collection which is written by a group of highly distinguished scholars from around the world is divided into two sections In the first part authors engage in depth with Latour's work while also rethinking the ties between the humanities and the sciences Essays argue for greater attention to the nonhuman world the urgency of climate change and more nuanced views of universities as institutions The second half of the volume contains essays that reflect on Latour's influence on the practices of specific disciplines including art the digital humanities film studies and political theory Inspiring conversation about the relevance of actor network theory for research and teaching in the humanities Latour and the Humanities offers a substantial introduction to Latour's work while discussing the humanities without falling back on the genres of either the sermon or the jeremiad This volume will be of interest to all those searching for fresh perspectives on the value and importance of humanistic disciplines and thought Contributors David J Alworth Anders Blok Claudia Breger Dipesh Chakrabarty Yves Citton Steven Connor Gerard de Vries Simon During Rita Felski Francis Halsall Graham Harman Antoine Hennion Casper Bruun Jensen Bruno Latour Heather Love Patrice Maniglier Stephen Muecke Barbara Herrnstein Smith Nigel Thrift Michael Witmore
