Outlaw Heroes as Liminal Figures of Film and Television

Rebecca A. Umland, 2016-04-20 Unlike such romanticized renegades as Robin Hood and Jesse James there is another kind of outlaw hero one who lives between the law and his own personal code In times of crisis when the law proves inadequate the liminal outlaw negotiates between the social imperatives of the community and his innate sense of right and wrong While society requires his services he necessarily remains apart from it in self preservation The modern outlaw hero of film and television is rooted in the knight errant whose violent exploits are tempered by his solitude and devotion to a higher ideal In Hollywood classics such as Casablanca 1942 and Shane 1953 and in early series like The Lone Ranger 1949 1957 and Have Gun Will Travel 1957 1963 the outlaw hero reconciles for audiences the conflicting impulses of individual freedom versus serving a larger cause Urban westerns like the Dirty Harry and Death Wish franchises as well as iconic action figures like Rambo and Batman testify to his enduring popularity This book examines the liminal hero s origins in medieval romance his survival in the mythology of the Hollywood western and his incarnations in the urban western and modern action film

Jacobson, 2020-06-01 The American Adrenaline Narrative considers the nature of perilous outdoor adventure tales their gendered biases and how they simultaneously promote and hinder ecological sustainability To explore these themes Kristin J Jacobson defines and compares adrenaline narratives by a range of American authors published after the first Earth Day in 1970 a time frame selected as a watershed moment for the contemporary American environmental movement The forty plus years since that day also mark the rise in the popularity and marketing of many things as extreme including sports jobs travel beverages gum makeovers laundry detergent and even the environmental movement itself Jacobson maps the American eco imagination via adrenaline narratives grounding them in the traditional literary practice of close reading analysis and in ecofeminism She surveys a range of popular and lesser known primary texts by American authors including best selling books such as Jon Krakauer's Into Thin Air and Aron Ralston's Between a Rock and a Hard Place and lesser known texts such as Patricia C McCairen's Canyon Solitude Eddy L Harris's Mississippi Solo and Stacy Allison's Beyond the Limits She also discusses such narratives as they appear in print and online articles and magazines feature length and short films television shows amateur videos social networking site posts fiction advertising and blogs Jacobson contends that these stories constitute a distinctive genre because unlike traditional nature travel and sports writing adrenaline narratives sustain heightened risk or the element of the extreme within a natural setting Additionally these narratives provide important insight into the American environmental imagination's connection to masculinity and adventure knowledge that helps us grasp the current climate crisis and how narrative understanding provides a needed intervention
