Learning Outcome: To identify alliteration in writing.

Task: Underline the alliteration in the following extracts from poetry and literature.

"The Ancient Mariner" by Samuel Taylor Coleridge

"The fair breeze blew, the white foam flew, the furrow followed free;

We were the first that ever burst into that silent sea."

"The Highwayman" by Alfred Noyes

"Over the cobbles he clattered and clashed in the dark inn-yard."

"His eyes were hollows of madness, his hair like mouldy hay."

"Sea Fever" by John Masefield

"I must go down to the seas again, to the lonely sea and the sky,

And all I ask is a tall ship and a star to steer her by; And the wheel's kick and the wind's song and the white sail's shaking,

And a grey mist on the sea's face, and a grey dawn breaking."

Composition Edwin Lillie Miller,1916 A Poetry Teacher's Toolkit Collette Drifte, Mike Jubb,2013-12-16 Professional poets spend many hours crafting a finished piece of work yet we expect children in school to sit down and write when they are told to whether they feel inspired or not This series of four books is a toolkit to help you build a positive framework for children to read write understand and enjoy poetry to bring a creative spark to the poetry classroom A combination of featured poems creative ideas structured lesson plans and differentiated photocopiable activity sheets gives the series a uniquely flexible approach which means you can use the materials in any classroom context If you re wary of poetry if you think it s boring or if you re nervous about teaching poetry then you ve chosen the right book Key themes covered in BOOK 2 Rhymes Rhythms and Rattles are rhythm and rhyme in poetry sounds alliteration words to create effects onomatopoeia and metaphor and simile Other books in the series are BOOK 1 Words and Wordplay BOOK 3 Style Shape and Structure and BOOK 4 Language and Performance Cognitive Linguistic Approaches to Teaching Vocabulary and Phraseology Frank Boers, Seth Lindstromberg,2008-08-27 Mastering the vocabulary of a foreign language is one of the most daunting tasks that language learners face The immensity of the task is underscored by the realisation that it is not only single words but also numerous standardised phrases idioms collocations etc that need to be acquired There is thus a clear need for instructional methods that help learners tackle this task and yet few proposals for vocabulary instruction have so far gone beyond techniques for rote learning and familiar means of promoting of noticing The reason for this is that vocabulary and phraseology have long been assumed arbitrary The volume offers a long overdue alternative by exploring and exploiting the presence of linguistic motivation or systematic non arbitrariness in the lexicon The first half of the volume reports ample empirical evidence of the pedagogical effectiveness of presenting vocabulary to learners as non arbitrary The data reported indicate that the proposed instructional methods can benefit when both the nature of the target lexis and the basic cognitive orientations of particular learners are taken into account The first half of the book mostly targets lexis that has already attracted a fair amount of attention from Cognitive Linguists in the past e g phrasal verbs and figurative idioms The second half broadens the scope considerably by revealing the non arbitrariness of diverse other lexical patterns including collocations and word partnerships generally This is achieved by recognising some long neglected dimensions of linguistic motivation etymological and phonological motivation in particular Concrete suggestions are made for putting the non arbitrary nature of words and phrases to good use in instructed language learning The volume is therefore of interest not only to applied linguists and researchers in Second Language Acquisition Foreign Language Teaching but also to second and foreign language teaching professionals Subject to Change Susie J.
