Tracking Adult Literacy and Numeracy Skills Stephen Reder, John Bynner, 2008-09-16 Poor literacy and numeracy skills of adults remain substantial problems in today's societies. This volume examines this issue through an analysis of adult education programs and their impact on basic skills development. The contributors offer far-reaching conclusions about what works and for what reasons in addressing adult literacy and numeracy. A Compendium of Neuropsychological Tests

Esther Strauss, Elisabeth M. S. Sherman, Otfried Spreen, 2006 This compendium gives an overview of the essential aspects of neuropsychological assessment practice. It is also a source of critical reviews of major neuropsychological assessment tools for the use of the practicing clinician. Automatic Access of the Meanings of Ambiguous Words in Context Asghar Iran-Nejad, Bertram C. Bruce, George W. McConkie, Jane Hansen, John R. Frederiksen, Kathryn Hu-Pei Au, Margaret S. Steffensen, P. Resources in Education, 1994 Research in Education, 1972 Clinical Neuropsychology Laura H. Goldstein, Jane E. McNeil, 2012-04-23 Featuring updates and revisions, the second edition of Clinical Neuropsychology provides trainee and practicing clinicians with practical real-world advice on neuropsychological assessment and rehabilitation. Offers illustrated coverage of neuroimaging techniques and updates on key neuro-pathological findings underpinning neurodegenerative disorders. Features increased coverage of specialist areas of work including severe brain injury, frontotemporal lobar degeneration, assessing mental capacity and cognitive impairment, and driving. Features updated literature and increased coverage of topics that are of direct clinical relevance to trainee and practicing clinical psychologists. Includes chapters written by professionals with many years' experience in the training of clinical psychologists.

Alzheimer's Disease in the Middle-aged Hyun Sil Jeong, 2008 Dementia is a brain disorder that seriously affects a person's ability to carry out daily activities. The most common form of dementia among older people is Alzheimer's disease (AD), which involves the parts of the brain that control thought, memory, and language. Age is the most important known risk factor for AD. The number of people with the disease doubles every 5 years beyond age 65. AD is a slow disease starting with mild memory problems and ending with severe brain damage. The course the disease takes and how fast changes occur vary from person to person. On average, AD patients live from 8 to 10 years after they are diagnosed, though the disease can last for as many as 20 years. Current research is aimed at understanding why AD occurs and who is at greatest risk of developing it, improving the accuracy of diagnosis, and the ability to identify those at risk, discovering, developing, and testing new treatments, and discovering treatments for behavioral problems in patients with AD. This new book gathers state-of-the-art research from leading scientists throughout the world, which offers important information on understanding the underlying causes and discovering the most effective treatments for Alzheimer's Disease. Black Scholars in White Space Anthony B. Bradley, 2015-01-19 Never before in American history have we seen the number of African Americans teaching at Christian

Colleges as we see today Black Scholars in White Space highlights the recent research and scholarly contributions to various academic disciplines by some of America's history making African American scholars working in Christian Higher Education. Many are the first African Americans or only African Americans teaching at their respective institutions. Moreover, never before have this many African American female scholars in Christian Higher Education had their research presented in a single cross disciplinary volume. The scholars in this book, spanning the humanities and social sciences, examine the issues in public policy, church state relations, health care, women's issues in higher education, theological anthropology, affirmative action, and black history that need to be addressed in America as we move forward in the 21st century. For these reasons and more, Black Scholars in White Space offers timely and historic contributions to the discourse about making the black community a place where men and women thrive and make contributions to the common good.

Tests in Education Philip Levy, Harvey Goldstein, 2014-05-19 Tests in Education: A Book of Critical Reviews is a collection of reviews of tests used in education. Topics covered by the reviews include early development, language, mathematics, composite attainments, general abilities, and personality and counseling. In the introduction, the tests reviewed, their range, and their accessibility and availability are discussed, along with the issues taken into account by the reviewers in the preparation of their reviews. Some of the desiderata for published tests are considered, and the principles and issues frequently referred to by the reviewers are highlighted. The next section is devoted to the test reviews, which cover early development, language, mathematics, composite attainments, general abilities, and personality and counseling. The final chapter focuses on a number of other reviews for tests such as the Comprehension Test for College of Education Students, Garnett College Test, Maitland Graves Design Judgement Test, The Meier Art Tests, Modern Language Aptitude Test, Seashore Measure of Musical Talents, and Wing Standardized Tests of Musical Intelligence. This monograph will be of value to a wide range of professionals, including teachers, higher administrative staff, and educational advisers, educational psychologists, medical officers, speech therapists, pediatricians, psychiatrists, and social workers.

The Psychology of Problem Solving Janet E. Davidson, Robert J. Sternberg, 2003-06-09 Problems are a central part of human life. The Psychology of Problem Solving organizes in one volume much of what psychologists know about problem solving and the factors that contribute to its success or failure. There are chapters by leading experts in this field, including Miriam Bassok, Randall Engle, Anders Ericsson, Arthur Graesser, Keith Stanovich, Norbert Schwarz, and Barry Zimmerman, among others. The Psychology of Problem Solving is divided into four parts. Following an introduction that reviews the nature of problems and the history and methods of the field, Part II focuses on individual differences in, and the influence of, the abilities and skills that humans bring to problem situations. Part III examines motivational and emotional states and cognitive strategies that influence problem solving performance, while Part IV summarizes and integrates the various views of problem solving proposed in the preceding chapters.
