Naval Training Bulletin ,1965      Cultural Diversity in the Armed Forces Joseph L. Soeters,Jan Van der Meulen,2007-01-24 This volume explores ethnicity and gender developments in relation to the military In some countries the armed forces have a long history in responding to ethnic diversity while elsewhere it has come up only recently as a policy issue An even handed representation of ethnic minorities in the military is recognized as crucial for enhancing its social legitimacy and professional quality The same can be said about the integration of women in the military which during a few decades across the board has grown into more than just another issue of personnel policies Indeed with regard to gender the symbolism and sensitivities surrounding core identities are at stake as with the presence of gays and lesbians in the military Written by experts in the field the chapters cover fourteen countries around the world the USA Canada Bolivia Ecuador Brazil South Africa Eritrea India Israel Great Britain France Germany Belgium and The Netherlands Taken together the armed forces of these countries offer a fascinating mix of similarities and differences in the ways they try to manage cultural diversity Cultural Diversity in the Armed Forces will be of interest to students and scholars of military studies sociology gender and political science A Survey of Race Relations in South Africa South African Institute of Race Relations,1973 security sectors through capacity building It innovates both theoretically and empirically It proposes a new framework for understanding maritime capacity building drawing on work in peacebuilding and security sector reform The framework is then applied across empirical case studies from the Western Indian Ocean WIO region written by scholars from the Global South The WIO region is a paradigmatic case to study maritime security and capacity building in action Countries in the region face the full gamut of maritime security challenges while their indigenous capacities to deal with these are often weak In consequence the region functions as an engine of innovation for maritime capacity building more widely The lessons and best practices from the region have importance consequences for addressing maritime security across the globe
