Immersion Education in the Early Years Tina Hickey,Anne-Marie de Mejía,2017-10-02 Worldwide more parents are opting for immersion pre schooling for their children in order to benefit from its linguistic educational and cultural benefits This immersion can be either bilingual or monolingual aimed at early second language learning or at language maintenance offering minority language children mother tongue support and enrichment This book examines some of the key issues and policy concerns relating to immersion education in the early years The term itself can be difficult in some political contexts as can the differing outcomes noted by studies comparing monolingual programmes and bilingual programmes for minority language children The importance of training in immersion methodology for educators is discussed as is the need to adapt preschool pedagogical practices to the immersion context in order to provide optimal input for young language learners One of the most pressing discussions surrounds differentiated provision ensuring that the varying needs of children with language impairment typical second language learners and mother tongue speakers with significant socioeconomic or linguistic disadvantages are all met Overall the book explores the challenges currently facing the sector particularly with regard to training and professional development for practitioners and the provision of appropriate materials in less widely used languages Given the documented benefit of high quality immersion pre schooling this book fulfils an urgent need to increase the recognition of the sector This book was published as a special issue of International Journal of Bilingual Education and Bilingualism What is Chaparral, Anyway? Stephanie Bryan Lundy, 1990

The Study of Bilingual Language Processing Nan Jiang, 2023-03-15 This book offers a detailed account of the issues models and outcomes of research into the cognition of bilingualism The first chapter identifies the most important characteristics of this research and its historical developments before the main part of the book explores studies of four bilingual processing topics The first of these is lexico semantic representation and organization in bilinguals which deals with how words and meanings are represented and connected in the bilingual mind The second cross language priming explores the bilingual lexicon by examining how exposure to words in one language may affect word recognition in another and leads to the discovery of an asymmetry in translation priming The third topic is selective lexical access in bilinguals which examines whether bilinguals can selectively activate one language while suppressing the other while the fourth is code switching focussing on language control and language regulation mechanisms in bilinguals The book concludes with a chapter that reviews research in three areas beyond lexical processing autobiographical memory the representation and interaction of syntactic knowledge and the consequences of bilingualism The volume demonstrates the theoretical significance and real world practical implications of research into bilingual language processing and will be a valuable resource for seminars and courses from advanced undergraduate level upwards
