Appropriations. Subcommittee on State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs, 2015 A Short History of South Africa
 Gail Nattrass, 2017-11-16 South Africa is popularly perceived as the most influential nation in Africa a gateway to an entire continent for finance trade and politics and a crucial mediator in its neighbours affairs On the other hand post Apartheid dreams of progress and reform have in part collapsed into a morass of corruption unemployment and criminal violence A Short History of South Africa is a brief general account of the history of this most complicated and fascinating country from the first evidence of hominid existence to the wars of the 18th 19th and 20th centuries that led to the establishment of modern South Africa the horrors of Apartheid and the optimism following its collapse as well as the prospects and challenges for the future This readable and thorough account illustrated with maps and photographs is the culmination of a lifetime of researching and teaching the broad spectrum of South African history Nattrass's passion for her subject shines through whether she is elucidating the reader on early humans in the cradle of humankind or describing the tumultuous twentieth century processes that shaped the democracy that is South Africa today The Routledge International Handbook of Military Psychology and Mental Health Updesh Kumar, 2019-12-11 Military psychology has become one of the world's fastest growing disciplines with ever emerging new applications of research and development The Routledge International Handbook of Military Psychology and Mental Health is a compendium of chapters by internationally renowned scholars in the field bringing forth the state of the art in the theory practice and future prospects of military psychology This uniquely interdisciplinary volume deliberates upon the current issues and applications of military psychology not only within the military organization and the discipline of psychology but also in the larger context of its role of building a better world Split into three parts dedicated to specific themes the first part of the book Military Psychology The Roots and the Journey provides an overview of the evolution of the discipline over the years delving into concepts as varied as culture and cognition in the military a perspective on the role of military psychology in future warfare and ethical issues The second part Soldiering Deployment and Beyond considers the complexities involved in soldiering in view of the changing nature of warfare generating a focal discourse on various aspects of military leadership soldier resilience and post traumatic growth in the face of extreme situations bravery and character strengths and transitioning to civilian life In the final section Making a Choice Mental Health Issues and Prospects in the Military the contributors focus on the challenges and practices involved in maintaining the mental health of the soldier covering issues ranging from stress mental health and well being through to suicide risk and its prevention intervention and management strategies moral injury and post traumatic stress disorder Incorporating enlightening contributions of eminent scholars from around the world the volume is a comprehensive repository of current perspectives and future directions in the domain of military psychology It will prove a valuable resource for mental health practitioners military leaders policy makers and academics and students across a range of disciplines A Treatise on the Law of Mortgages of Real Property Leonard Augustus Jones, 1928 Post-conflict Reconstruction and

Development in Africa Theo Neethling, Heidi Hudson, 2013-10-01 Some of the bloodiest conflicts occur on the African continent An Afrocentric perspective is therefore a suitable starting point for research into the possible strategies for post conflict peacebuilding The authors of this book consider the problems around the concept of post conflict and the blurring of military and civilian roles analysing the UN roles in the DRC and Sierra Leone as well as the African Union Mission in Burundi The main context of the book however is the South African Army s strategy for PCRD in Africa which was developed with the African Union s 2006 Post Conflict Reconstruction and Development Needs Assessment Guide in mind This book emanates from this plan It therefore also explores South Africa s policy imperatives to integrate development projects and peace missions involving the military as well as civilian organisations While this book is not intended as an instruction manual it hopes to ignite an understanding of the particular processes required to develop a sustainable and cohesive post conflict peacebuilding strategy within the African environment Youth In South Africa Ariane De Lannoy, Malose

Langa, 2021-05-05 South Africa is characterised by a youthful population and the challenges and possibilities that characterise the young generation are both warning signs and beacons of hope for a nation founded on social justice Youth in South Africa Agency in visibility and national development takes stock of the nation s development as it affects young people Authors offer both personal and professional insights into the ways in which the youth navigate their own pathways to adulthood These include formal and informal engagements with politics as well as protest un employment entrepreneurship education religion experiences with sexuality and violence and a multitude of other life experiences Contributors paint a picture of the initiative agency and resilience of the youth as well as the challenges before them Authors also identify the state of waithood faced by those unable to make the transition out of youth into full adulthood as a result of their socio economic circumstances and political context By engaging these experiences and insights and primarily informed by the inputs of young people the authors highlight the limitations of existing youth policies and frameworks The case is made for policy instruments to be informed by the lived experiences of the youth as they navigate a complex macrosocial environment and by the messages the youth communicate about the limitations of current approaches Amnesty After Atrocity?

Helena Cobban, 2015-11-17 A compelling read Richard J Goldstone former Chief Prosecutor of the UN tribunals for the former Yugoslavia and Rwanda A very important contribution Princeton N Lyman Council on Foreign Relations A powerful reminder that dealing with the legacy of wartime atrocities is not simply a matter of bringing perpetrators to justice It also means overcoming the divisions within the society and healing the victims Marina Ottaway Senior Associate Democracy and Rule of Law Project Carnegie Endowment for International Peace In Amnesty after Atrocity veteran journalist Helena Cobban examines the effectiveness of different ways of dealing with the aftermath of genocide and violence committed during intergroup conflicts She traveled to Rwanda Mozambique and South Africa to assess the various ways those nations tried to come to grips with their violent past from war crimes trials to truth commissions to outright amnesties for perpetrators She discovered that in terms of both moving forward and satisfying the needs of survivors war crimes trials are not the most effective path This book provides historical context and includes interviews with a cross section of people community leaders victims policymakers teachers rights activists and even some former abusers These first person accounts create a rich readable text and Cobban s overall conclusions will surprise many readers in the West COVID-19 and a World of Ad Hoc Geographies Stanley D. Brunn, Donna Gilbreath, 2022-09-15 This book provides an interdisciplinary overview of the causes and impacts of COVID 19 on populations economies politics institutions and environments from all world regions The book maps the causes effects and impacts of the virus and describes the impact of the virus on among others health care teaching and learning travel tourism daily life local and regional economies media impacts elections and indigenous populations and much more Contributions to this book come from the humanities social and policy science disciplines as well as from emerging transdisciplinary fields including climate change sustainability health care and epidemiology security art visualization economic and social well being law and borderland studies As such this book will be a rich source of information to all those geographers social scientists and urban and regional planners working in this field
