Sandf Posts 2015:

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heinecken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994. In South Africa's changed political state, how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy? This book presents an overview of the security environment, how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement, force preparation, force employment and force sustainability. The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force, the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy, recruitment and retention, military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment, gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged. HIV/AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness. In closing, the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation, spelling out some lessons learned. The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil-military relations of countries around the world.

The Urban Rehabilitation of Post-Disaster Scapes Nerma Omičević, Bojana Bojanić Obad Šćitaroci, 2023-03-14 This book provides the first extensive examination and analysis of the use of the urban landscape during the disaster process by connecting its elements throughout disaster phases: the pre-disaster phase consisting of reduction in form of prevention and mitigation; the disaster event phase consisting of the disaster impact followed by the disaster effects; and the post-disaster phase consisting of the post-disaster recovery. This work includes the analysis of 18 disaster case studies worldwide, of which 12 case studies are within the natural and 6 case studies within the man-made disaster category. The criteria for choosing these examples is based on the division into natural and man-made disaster subcategories and the period of their occurrence from 1991 to 2021. The main purpose of this comparative analysis is to reveal the use of the urban landscape during the disaster process through the role of its open public spaces during each disaster phase in both natural and man-made disaster categories. The book is a useful read for researchers and students of disaster management.

SADC Gender Protocol 2017 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe, Makamure, Lucia, 2017-10-04 The SADC Protocol on Gender and Development is the only sub-regional instrument in the world that brings together global and continental commitments to gender equality in one instrument used to enhance accountability. The Southern African Gender Protocol Alliance is a network of country and regional NGOs that campaigned for the Protocol, its updating, implementation and tracking. Originally aligned to the Millennium Development Goals that expired in 2015, SADC Gender Ministers updated the Protocol and aligned it to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), Beijing Plus Twenty and the Africa Agenda 2063 in 2016. In July 2017, the Ministers adopted a Monitoring, Evaluation and Reporting Framework (MERF) that will be the basis of future reporting. Now in its ninth edition the 2017 Barometer is the first assessment of the Post 2015 SADC Gender Protocol Moving with the times the Alliance has expanded the two key main yardsticks in the Barometer the SADC Gender and Development Index SGDI and the Citizen Score Card CSC The Barometer incorporates many MERF and SDG indicators as well as its own unique measures of voice choice and control The Barometer also introduces the Gender Responsive Assessment of Constitutions and Laws conducted by Alliance experts and networks around the region A wealth of data insights and analysis awaits all readers of the Barometer that will also be made available online and in multi media formats The SADC we want is one in which citizens engage step it up for gender equality and make sure we achieve Planet 50 50 by 2030 Post-conflict Reconstruction and Development in Africa Theo Neethling, Heidi Hudson, 2013-10-01 Some of the bloodiest conflicts occur on the African continent An Afrocentric perspective is therefore a suitable starting point for research into the possible strategies for post conflict peacebuilding The authors of this book consider the problems around the concept of post conflict and the blurring of military and civilian roles analysing the UN roles in the DRC and Sierra Leone as well as the African Union Mission in Burundi The main context of the book however is the South African Army's strategy for PCRD in Africa which was developed with the African Union's 2006 Post Conflict Reconstruction and Development Needs Assessment Guide in mind This book emanates from this plan It therefore also explores South Africa's policy imperatives to integrate development projects and peace missions involving the military as well as civilian organisations While this book is not intended as an instruction manual it hopes to ignite an understanding of the particular processes required to develop a sustainable and cohesive post conflict peacebuilding strategy within the African environment The Palgrave International Handbook of Gender and the Military Rachel Woodward, Claire Duncanson, 2017-06-27 The Palgrave International Handbook of Gender and the Military provides a comprehensive overview of the multiple ways in which gender and militaries connect International and multi disciplinary in scope this edited volume provides authoritative accounts of the many intersections through which militaries issues and military forces are shaped by gender The chapters provide detailed accounts of key issues informed by examples from original research in a wealth of different national contexts This Handbook includes coverage of conceptual approaches to the study of gender and militaries gender and the organisation of state military forces gender as it pertains to military forces in action transitions and transgressions within militaries gender and non state military forces and gender in representations of military personnel and practices With contributions from a range of both established and early career scholars The Palgrave International Handbook of Gender and the Military is an essential guide to current debates on gender and contemporary military issues Foreign Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Adekeye Adebajo, Kudrat Virk, 2017-12-18 South Africa is the most industrialized power in Africa It was rated the continent's largest economy in 2016 and is the only African member of the G20 It is also the only strategic partner of the EU in Africa Yet despite being so strategically and economically significant there is little scholarship that focuses on South Africa as a regional hegemon This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of South Africa's post Apartheid foreign policy. Over its 23 chapters and with contributions from established Africa, Western Asian and American scholars as well as diplomats and analysts, the book examines the current pattern of the country's foreign relations in impressive detail. The geographic and thematic coverage is extensive, including chapters on the domestic imperatives of South Africa's foreign policy, peace making, defence and security, bilateral relations in Southern Central West Eastern and North Africa, bilateral relations with the US, China, Britain, France and Japan, the country's key external multilateral relations with the UN, the BRICS economic grouping, the African Caribbean and Pacific Group, ACP as well as the EU and the World Trade Organization, WTO. An essential resource for researchers, the book will be relevant to the fields of area studies, foreign policy, history, international relations, international law, security studies, political economy and development studies.

Foreign Policy Posture in Post-Apartheid South Africa Bhekithemba R.

Mngomezulu, 2019-11-11. Foreign policy and domestic policy feed into each other. To a large degree, the latter informs the former. This book demonstrates the relationship between the two, paying particularly close attention to how South Africa envisioned its foreign policy during the negotiation process. Importantly, it spells out how South Africa's foreign policy has evolved since the early 1990s. The critics of South Africa's foreign policy often question the motives behind the country's involvement in African and global affairs. The contributions here demonstrate the complex nature of foreign policy making, approaching the subject both from a broad theoretical perspective and specifically through empirical case studies. The book will appeal to political scientists, historians, policy practitioners, international relations specialists and government officials and their advisors as well as international relations theorists.

Guns & Roses: Comparative Civil-Military Relations in the Changing Security Environment Steven Ratuva, Radomir Compel, Sergio Aguilar, 2019-01-04. This edited volume provides a critical and comparative discussion of the changing synergy between the military and society in the dramatically transforming global security climate, drawing on examples from the Asian Pacific, African, Middle Eastern, European and South American regions. The book is interdisciplinary and covers wide-ranging issues relating to civil-military relations, democratization, regional security, ethnicity, peace building and peace keeping, civilian oversight, internal repression, gender, regime change and civil society.

Silencing the Guns in Africa Antonio Garcia, Jacob Udo-Udo, 2025-03-14. The scholarship of this book is drawn from local and international experts by framing critically a number of discourses on matters of security, conflict, violence and peace on the African continent. It is indeed a breath of fresh air to the scientific community, largely because it contributes to the on-going debates on security issues. Dr Ntsikelelo Benjamin Breakfast, Director of the Center for Security, Peace and Conflict Resolution at Nelson Mandela University. This book makes a deep contribution to scholarly literature on conflict studies, peacekeeping and peacebuilding in Africa. Written largely from the perspective of the applied social sciences, it is empirically rich and offers refreshing insights into social behaviour in military contexts. This is a timely contribution because current public discourse in South Africa is centred on the gains and missed opportunities of thirty years of democracy and new lenses are welcome Many of the chapters reflect South African experiences This is to be welcomed as it demonstrates that scholars and practitioners from the country are reflecting on the complexities of South African experiences of defence and security matters in contemporary times Dr Sandy Africa Director of Research at Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection MISTRA This volume brings together the voices of scholars and practitioners a diverse group of writers who are passionate about and committed to creating a safer more prosperous and peaceful Africa Each with their own specialism this work combines many different world views and approaches Conflict in Africa is an impossibly broad topic to cover in a single edited publication and so we focus on a select number of case studies expositions and themes

Fractured Militancy Marcel Paret, 2022-02-15 Drawing on extensive ethnographic fieldwork and interviews with activists Fractured Militancy tells the story of postapartheid South Africa from the perspective of Johannesburg s impoverished urban Black neighborhoods Nearly three decades after South Africa s transition from apartheid to democracy widespread protests and xenophobic attacks suggest that not all is well in the once celebrated rainbow nation Marcel Paret traces rising protests back to the process of democratization and racial inclusion This process dangled the possibility of change but preserved racial inequality and economic insecurity prompting residents to use militant protests to express their deep sense of betrayal and to demand recognition and community development Underscoring remarkable parallels to movements such as Black Lives Matter in the United States this account attests to an ongoing struggle for Black liberation in the wake of formal racial inclusion Rather than unified resistance however class struggles within the process of racial inclusion produced a fractured militancy Revealing the complicated truth behind the celebrated success of South African democratization Paret uncovers a society divided by wealth urban geography nationality employment and political views Fractured Militancy warns of the threat that capitalism and elite class struggles present to social movements and racial justice everywhere

The Economics of Defense Industry Thomas-Durell Young, 2023-10-17 This book on the economics of defence industry assesses a series of historical and contemporary case studies that consistently demonstrate the need for governments to recognise and thereafter factor the financial needs of a narrow industrial sector that is capital intensive technologically advanced and that requires a highly skilled labour force Since the end of the cold war Western governments have systematically reduced financial support to their domestic defence industry and have seemingly ignored planning and funding industrial mobilisation In all cases government policy has been to encourage industries to consolidate capacity to become financially viable in a sector that has seen diminished demand The 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine has caused Western governments to reassess their previous assumptions Efforts to increase industrial capacity have been met with the iron laws of economics whereby businesses need to show return on investments The chapters in this volume posit that efforts to rationalise industrial capacity and innovation to meet short term financial efficiencies inevitably results in limited expensive and long delays in increased production in times of international crisis This book serves as an essential guide for academics researchers and students interested in defence economics industrial economics international relations and industrial policy The chapters in this book were originally published in various issues of Defense Security Analysis

Military Operations in Response to Domestic Emergencies and Global Pandemics Lindy Heineken,Christian Leuprecht,2025-08-25 This open access book provides a comparative analysis of the deployment of the military in domestic operations the use of the armed forces during the COVID 19 pandemic and the impact of that deployment on civil military relations in 26 countries worldwide The book examines the legal and constitutional regulations under which the military can serve in domestic roles and the extent of domestic deployment before the COVID 19 pandemic It focuses on the roles in which the military served during the pandemic the resources available and the readiness and effectiveness of the military response The volume addresses whether or not the pandemic response was securitized the extent of civilian oversight and control the accountability measures in place and the impact of the COVID 19 deployment on the military s image The volume captures the lessons learnt from the COVID 19 deployment and the implications for future force design structure and organizational transformation Since almost all countries used their military in some capacity to respond to the COVID 19 pandemic this volume offers an opportunity to compare use of the armed forces to provide domestic humanitarian assistance and disaster response

The Routledge Handbook of Civil-military Relations Thomas C. Bruneau,Florina Cristiana Matei,2013 The Routledge Handbook of Civil Military Relations not only fills this important lacuna but offers an up to date comparative analysis which identifies three essential components in civil military relations 1 democratic civilian control 2 operational effectiveness and 3 the efficiency of the security institutions This Handbook will be essential reading for students and practitioners in the fields of civil military relations
