1 Important

Read this user manual carefully before you use the appliance and keep it for future reference.

- WARNING: Do not use this appliance near water.
- When the appliance is used in a bathroom, unplug it after use since the proximity of water presents a risk, even when the appliance is switched off.
- WARNING: Do not use this appliance near bathtubs, showers, basins or other vessels containing water.
- Always unplug the appliance after use.
- If the appliance overheats, it switches off automatically. Unplug the appliance and let it cool down for a few minutes. Before you switch the appliance on again, check the grilles to make sure they are not blocked by hair, etc.
- If the main cord is damaged, you must have it replaced by Philips, a service center authorized by Philips or similarly qualified persons in order to avoid a hazard.
- This appliance can be used by children aged from 8 years and above and persons with reduced physical, sensory or mental capabilities or lack of experience and knowledge if they have been given supervision or instruction concerning use of the appliance in a safe way and understand the hazards involved. Children shall not play with the appliance. Cleaning and user maintenance shall not be made by children without supervision.

- For additional protection, we advise you to install a residual current device (RCD) in the electrical circuit that supplies the bathroom. This RCD must have a rated residual operating current not higher than 30mA. Ask your installer for advice.
- Do not insert metal objects into the air grilles, to avoid electric shock.
- Never block the air grilles.
- Before you connect the appliance, ensure that the voltage indicated on the appliance corresponds to the local power voltage.
- Do not use the appliance for any other purpose than described in this manual.
- Do not use the appliance on artificial hair.
- When the appliance is connected to the power, never leave it unattended.
- Never use any accessories or parts from other manufacturers if that Philips does not specifically recommend. If you use such accessories or parts, your guarantee becomes invalid.
- Do not twist the main cord around the appliance.
- Wait until the appliance has cooled down before you store it.
- Do not pull on the power cord after using. Always unplug the appliance by holding the plug.
- Do not operate the appliance with wet hands.
- Always return the appliance to a service center authorized by Philips for examination or repair. Repair by unqualified people could result in an extremely hazardous situation for the user.

Electromagnetic fields (EMF)

This Philips appliance complies with all applicable standards and regulations regarding exposure to electromagnetic fields.

Recycling

- Do not throw away the product with the normal household waste at the end of its life, but hand it in at an official collection point for recycling. By doing this, you help to preserve the environment.
- Follow your country's rules for the separate collection of electrical and electronic products. Correct disposal helps prevent negative consequences for the environment and human health.

2 Dry your hair

- 1 Connect the plug to a power supply socket.
 - For precise drying, attach the concentrator (1) onto the handpiece (2).
 - To disconnect the attachment, pull it off the handpiece.
- 2 Adjust the airflow switch (3) to I for hot and strong airflow for thick hair, II for the caring ThermoProtect temperature for gentle and efficient drying, or III to switch off.

After use

- 1 Switch off the appliance and unplug it.
- 2 Place it on a heat-resistant surface until it cools down.
- 3 Clean the appliance by damp cloth.
- 4 Keep it in a safe and dry place, free of dust. You can also hang it with the hanging loop (4).

Survival of the Smartest Haim Mendelson, Johannes Ziegler, 1999-03-08 Drawing on the innovative concept of Organizational IQ and a study of companies in seventeen countries, Survival of the Smartest charts a course for managers to follow into the twenty-first century. At the heart of the book is the authors' assessment tool of an organization's future health, which they call Organizational IQ. It measures a company's ability to quickly process information and make effective decisions. As industry clockspeeds accelerate everywhere, a high IQ has become a prerequisite for survival. Low IQ companies that the authors studied on the other hand have already vanished. Case studies from Hewlett-Packard, British Petroleum, Sun Microsystems, and Chrysler among others illustrate how companies can improve their Organizational IQ. How did Hewlett-Packard become the dominant player in printing? How did British Petroleum transform itself from a stodgy behemoth into the most agile and competitive player in the oil industry? How did Chrysler rise from the brink of bankruptcy to become the auto industry's prized asset? In these companies, technology by itself only played a secondary role; to be successful, the entire organization had to become smarter. The authors show how key strategic decisions turned around these companies' Organizational IQ and with it their fortunes. A detailed company case study takes you in slow motion through the different steps you can take to improve the IQ of your own organization. Survival of the Smartest offers a rare blend of a coherent framework, in-depth company case studies, a sound research base, and a detailed step-by-step implementation example. Based on a landmark study of 164 organizations worldwide conducted as part of a partnership between Stanford University, McKinsey Company, and the University of Augsburg, Organizational IQ is proving to be the acid test for the success or failure of companies around the world. Haim Mendelson, PhD, is the James Irwin Miller Professor of Information Systems at the Stanford Business School, leader of the Technology Organizations and Markets area at the Stanford Computer Industry Project, co-director of the Stanford Executive Program on Strategic Uses of Information Technology, and a consultant to

How we live: through the products that we use Sugandh Malhotra, 2025-01-30
Products tell stories about their users, their likes, tastes and journeys. How We Live book aims to outlay, document and study the used products and create a persona of the users through a brief narrative. This visual documentation book is an excellent resource to observe and acknowledge the subtle differences in choices that are driven by nuances other than personal preferences.

Electrical Trading and Radio Marketing, 1963 Brands and Their Companies, 2007 Trends, Challenges & Innovations in Management Dr Ramesh Kumar Miryala, 2015-03-15
Globalization has proliferated business with numerous challenges and opportunities and simultaneously at other end the growth in economy, population, income and standard of living has redefined the scope of business and thus the business houses approach. A highly competitive environment, knowledgeable consumers and quicker pace of technology are keeping business enterprises to be on their toes. Today management and its concepts have become key for survival of any business entity. The unique cultural characteristics, tradition and dynamics of consumer demand, an innovative management strategy to achieve success. Effective Management has become an increasingly vital ingredient for business success and it profoundly affects our day to day life. Today the role of a business house has changed from merely selling products and services to transforming lives and nurturing lifestyles. The Indian business is changing and so do the management strategies. These changing scenarios in the context of globalization will bestow ample issues, prospects and challenges which need to be explored. The practitioners, academicians and researchers need to meticulously review these aspects and acquaint them with knowledge to sustain in such scenarios. Thus these changing scenarios emphasize the need of a broad based research in the field of management also reflecting in management education. This book is an attempt in that direction. I sincerely hope that this book will provide insights into the subject to faculty members, researchers and students from the management institutes, consultants, practicing managers from industry and government officers.
