Handbook of Research on Educational Communications and Technology David H. Jonassen, 2004 This edition of this handbook updates and expands its review of the research theory issues and methodology that constitute the field of educational communications and technology Organized into seven sectors it profiles and integrates the following elements of this rapidly changing field

The Educational Philosophy of Elijah Muhammad Abul Pitre, 2015-09-24 This work is the first to examine the educational philosophy of Elijah Muhammad the patriarch of the Nation of Islam and a pivotal leader in America's history This timely book outlines Elijah Muhammad's educational ideas in relation to critical pedagogy multicultural education and critical white studies a branch of critical race theory popularized in the mid 1970s that reaches across disciplines to explore the relationship among race the justice system and society The Educational Philosophy of Elijah Muhammad Education for a New World is a must read for those dedicated to creating a new paradigm that can transform individuals schools societies and the world Features new to this completely revised third edition include a more in depth discussion of critical educational theory as it relates to the teachings of Elijah Muhammad and foreword by world renowned curriculum theorist William Pinar

Learner Centred Teaching : Philosophical, Historical, and Psychological Foundation Dr. Rajendra Kumar Shah, Learner centered teaching is the main topic of interest and discussion among educators teachers professor and parents around the world Learner centered teaching is related to the curriculum at all levels of schools colleges and universities Therefore it is very important for all teachers parents curriculum experts etc to have knowledge about this concept But no one seems to have prepared a book about learner centered teaching in a simple language that everyone can understand Academicians such as Rousseau Froebel and Pestalozzi studied this concept in depth and made important contributions to broaden this concept In the same way in the 20th century many educationists gave great importance to learner centered teaching and researched it Educationists such as Dewey Kilpatrick Montessori Parkar played an important role in the development of progressive education His concept of democratic education is the basis for the development of learner centered teaching Similarly psychologists of different periods developed the concept of learner centered teaching Thus in today's world learner centered teaching has become a subject of interest and study for everyone The concept of learner centered teaching which has become the subject of everyone's interest and interest has been incorporated in this book that everyone can understand In this book the definition and concept of learner centered teaching has been presented with great effort On the other hand the major philosophical historical and psychological foundations of learner centered teaching have also been presented Therefore this book is believed to be able to fulfill many questions of the readers regarding the concept of learner centered teaching

Philosophical Foundations of Education Howard Ozmon, Samuel M. Craver, 2003 The purpose of this volume is to show how philosophical ideas about education developed over time with due regard to historical influences and settings and with an emphasis on how these ideas continue to have relevance for education and life This book was conceived as an introductory text in the philosophy of education but it leads students from simple to complex philosophical ideas
