

The background of the entire image is a photograph of a dirt path that curves through a wooded area. The path is light brown and appears to be made of packed earth or dry leaves. On either side of the path, there are various trees and bushes. Some trees have dark, bare branches, while others have green foliage. Trollope On the Net Ellen Moody, 1999-01-01 This book takes up two topics. The first is the British novelist Anthony Trollope (1815-1882), author of 47 novels and five volumes of short stories. The second is the Internet, specifically the creation of virtual communities through email and discussion lists, focusing naturally enough on discussion of the works of Trollope. The first chapter tells how the group began and focuses on the conversation that ensued on Trollope's first novel, The Macdermots of Ballycloran. The second chapter widens the discussion to take in all of Trollope's Irish novels. The third records the conversation of the group on Trollope's novel of jealousy, He Knew He Was Right. The fourth chapter discusses Trollope's shorter novels. The fifth returns to the group conversations; this time the discussion of The Claverings. The sixth chapter discusses the illustrations of Trollope's novels. The seventh chapter records the group conversation on Trollope's most class-ridden novel, Lady Anna. The eighth chapter discusses Trollope's life through his An Autobiography. The last chapter sets the group conversation on Can You Forgive Her? into the context of the Palliser or Parliamentary novel sequence. The Preface is by John Letts, Chairman of the British Trollope Society. The book contains twenty-four illustrations from the original editions of Trollope's novels.
